Raiders, Falcons win cage thrillers

Farmington High picked an exciting way to win its first game of the season last Tuesday at non-league Birmingham Seaholm.

Rick McKibben, a 6 foot-3 senior and Farmington's only returning starter from last season, made a layup with just two seconds left to play as the Falcons edged Seaholm, 55-54. McKib-ben finished with 18 points on seven field goals and four of six free throws. Farmington led by four points (34-30) at halflime, but Seaholm came back to outpoint the Falcons, 129, in the third quarter. Jeff Maher Scorde 18 points for Seaholm, now 0-3 this sea-son.

Not to be outdone in the excitement department, North Farmington poured in 14 points in overtime and held Bloomfield Hills Andover to four in recording a 68-58 victory last Tuesday at Andover.

The win was the third straight this season for coach Ken Dean's North Farmington team.

Tim Mather, a 6-3 senior, scored a game-high 22 points, including four in the overtime. Jeff Thomas and Harold Beardsley added 18 and 11 points, respectively. Mark Thompson had nine points, including four free throws in the OT.

John Perles led Andover with 17 points.
