Amusements

MICHAEL DUNN comes to Michigan from Paris to play lead in musical farce, "Forum" at The Musical Tent, north of Lansing, July 8-13.

Dunn To Play Summer Stock In Clio Area

Movie and TV fans share with theater goers a familiarity with the talents of Michael Dunn, soon to star in a summer production of "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum", July 8-13.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Livonia, Dunn will be seen at The Musical Tent at Clio, north of Lansing.

Pseudolus, the role filled by Zero Mostel in the Broadway and motion picture versions of "Forum" is to be Dunn's in this presentation. He plays a slave in the household of a Roman citizen in a comedy of errors involving mistaken identities, masquerades and endlessly farcical situations.

Born in Shattuck, Okla., and raised in Detroit, Dunn attended Redford High where he first met Wayne Martens, director of The Musical Tent. He has just completed filming his new picture, "The Way The Cookie Crumbles" and has another unreleased picture, Justine, in the can.

His TV appearances have been on Wild Wild West and Run For your Life, Star Trek and Tarzan. He is active in development of professional theatre throughout the USA and has helped a number of young actors get started.

The Gourmet Adventures of

DICK BENSEK

Probably the oldest — and certainly one of the best — forms of meat cookery is roasting, a method of cooking by exposure to direct, dry heat, originally that of an open fire, and now more often that of an oven, whereas most roasting today is done on a rack in an oven, a great deal of spit roasting still goes on in European and American kitchens and backyards. The most elaborate of the spit-roasting devices are the well - designed electric rotisseries with spits which gives a roast a beautiful brown finish and fine flavor and texture. Unquestionably, spit-roasted meat is one of the world's great gastronomic pleasures' . . . second only to eating at DANISH INN, 32305 Grand River Ave., 476-5320. We are open from 11a.m.-2a.m. with dinners during the week till 10p.m., Fri. & Sat till 1 a.m., Closed Sun. From Tuesday thru Saturday enjoy the piano music of Pat Flowers. He plays memorable jazz, boogie and classical music.

HELPFUL HINT: Meat cuts with bone in it will cook faster than boned cuts.
