Kids hit the slopes

 of 49 children at Eagle, who cannot participate in the program, Ms. Stamos hasn't noticed it. "I think children realize there are some things you can't do and some things you can," she explains. For the children on skis, however, it's a chance to test their limits. "Skiing gives them a chance to do something everyone else can do," says Mrs. Elias. While the ski patrol has agreed to continue the program until the snow runs out this year, Ms. Stamos hopes to expand the number of children in the program next year. In addition to Robbie, Sarena, and Marc, the other children in the program are: Danielle Meade, 9, of Orchard Lake; Eric Braun, 6, of Birmingham; and Pam Kidd, 6, of West Bloomfield. Ski patrol instructors are: Al Tomala, Rick Van Houdt, Marty Neighbors, Tony Sasso, John Bennett, and Gagnon. Volunteers include: Donna Doyseher, Cary Crouse, Bob Gorge, Dick Stoddard, Linda Irvine and Chuba.
