

RECORD OF GREAT WAR DURING 1916

Collapsing of Roumania the Most Striking Event in the Awful Conflict.

BOTH SIDES LOSE HEAVILY

Hunger Confronts the Entire World, Food Crops Being Partial Failure—American Troops Enter Mexico, National Guard Being Sent to Border.

In estimating the year 1916 of the world war the collapse of Roumania takes first place. The conquest of Balkan nation... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

On the last New Year's day Henry Ford returned from his peace... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

On the sea the situation for Germany is slightly better... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

September 1916 saw an increase in British losses of 120 per cent over the same month of the previous year... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

As to the losses in warships, the figures are in dispute... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

One German colony, the East African, continues to hold out bravely... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

War becomes more horrible as time goes on... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

War becomes more horrible as time goes on... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

Leaders of humanity, are being cut down... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

Nineteen hundred and sixteen has brought compulsory military service... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

On the last New Year's day Henry Ford returned from his peace... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

On the sea the situation for Germany is slightly better... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

September 1916 saw an increase in British losses of 120 per cent over the same month of the previous year... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

As to the losses in warships, the figures are in dispute... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

One German colony, the East African, continues to hold out bravely... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

Merchants has proved very profitable. The United States on a debtor nation is now over the line and is progressing as a creditor nation...

In the Balkans the allies have collected a vast, tremendous army... The year sees two new combatants plunged in the maelstrom of war...

Bound to be remembered in history are the two successful trips of the German merchant submarine Deutschland across the Atlantic to the United States...

On Mexican Middle Continues. The situation in Mexico, which has sea-sawed back and forth since it was willed to the present administration by President Taft...

On January 10, Villa bandits under the leadership of Pablo Gonzalez held up a train at Santa Isabel, Chihuahua, and murdered in cold blood 17 Americans...

After many debates in congress concerning Mexico, nothing was done, and the situation, apparently settled down.

Suddenly from the border on the night of March 8 came the news that Villa and a large force of bandits had crossed the line and raided Columbus, N. M., killing 19 Americans and capturing with some of the cavalry horses of the army outpost there...

The loss of time between the Columbus raid and the Pecos massacre will be get far into the history of Chihuahua, and it was not until March 23 that Colonel Podd with a handful of troopers of the Seventh cavalry overtook the band leaders...

On April 20, Minister of War, Obregon and Major General Scott, chief of staff of the American army, met in El Paso with General Panison in an effort to arrive at some policy that would mutually benefit the border...

Major Langhorne and about half a troop of cavalry entered Mexico in pursuit of the Mexican forces, and succeeded in rescuing Jesse Decker, a storekeeper of Glenn Springs, who had been held for ransom by the Mexicans...

President Wilson on May 5 ordered the militia of Arizona, New Mexico and Texas, but despite this additional force the Mexicans again crossed the river at San Ignacio, and murdered three cavalrymen...

alra, captured Chihuahua City. Carranza troops made the town too hot for him, however, and he abandoned the place. Early in December he was reported to be advancing on Juarez...

PROMINENT PERSONS WHO DIED IN 1916. January 1—Ex-United States Senator Alfred W. Benson of Kansas...

February 7—Col. William P. Hepburn, former congressman, in Clarinda, Ia. February 10—Belvidere Brooks, telegraph magnate, in New York City...

March 2—Carmen Sylva, Dowager Queen of Roumania. March 4—Brigadier General William S. Smith, Civil War veteran and U. S. senator...

April 1—James B. Angell, president emeritus of the University of Michigan. April 11—Richard H. Davis, author...

May 13—Sholem Aleichem, called the 'Yiddish King Twain', in New York City. Clara Louise Kellogg, famous opera singer...

June 6—Yuan Shih Kai, president of China. June 9—John R. McLean, newspaper man, in Washington...

August 6—Robert Gray, Impresario to Mount Vernon, N. Y.; John M. Thurston, ex-United States Senator, in Omaha...

September 4—Richard C. Kerne of St. Louis. September 15—Jose Echegaray, dramatist, in Madrid...

October 1—James P. Clarke, president pro tempore of the United States senate. October 4—Major William Warner, ex-United States senator from Missouri...

November 5—Cardinal Francis John Vaiseux, prefect of the Congregation of the Index, in Rome. November 12—Dr. Percival Lowell, astronomer, in Flagstaff, Ariz...

295 Calls ONE MONTH. In the record for the year 1916, in other words EMPLOYERS OF DETROIT WANTED IN ONE MONTH 295 BUSINESS INSTITUTE GRADUATES...

The Business Institute. Largest, best equipped business school in Michigan. High grade schools also conducted in Pontiac and Mt. Clemens.

SKATES. SKATING SHOES—BUY THEM HERE AT "BEFORE THE WAR PRICES." SPECIAL—Black shoe, leather laced, buckle and strap complete with hardened steel Canadian Hockey Skates attached. $5.00

You'll Enjoy Your New Year. More in a Ballantine Suit or Coat. We offer the best to you in attractive patterns, pure durable woollens and smart styles.

EVENTS OF 1916 OUTSIDE THE WAR AND MEXICO. Jan. 7—Riots in East Youngstown, O., business section destroyed, three killed, 102 injured.

June 27—Duke of Devonshire appointed governor general of Canada. July 13—President Wilson selects John H. Clarke of Cleveland, O., to occupy Charles E. Hughes' place on the United States Supreme court bench.

Sept. 2—Senate passes Adamson bill. Railroad strike ended canceled. Oct. 29—Twenty-one lost when Duluth steamer, James E. Colgate, sinks in storm on Lake Erie.

The BALLANTINE CO. 295 Woodward Open Mill 9th St. Detroit, Mich. TAILORS