Contrary to the laws existing in England and Sweden, in Russia when a landy belonging to a titled family marier a Russian spend family marier a Russian spending to a titled family marier a Russian spending for a titled family marier and the only right left to her of her former title is to write on her some title in the write on her some title in the write on her sisting cards and official papers, "Iris, So-and-So, born Princess, Countess or Baroness Soland-Sot' Her children are called by their "Ather's name." There are only a few exceptions to this rule, according to London Tit-Bits.

In Russian no raddle class or gentry are known. There are londy nobles and peasants. The clair, however, grants sometimes for speical merit the right to be styled a notherhan, and also for the same reason the fittee or count and haron, and occasionally that of prince. Street Journal.

In speaking of Canada a short time age the Wall Street Journal made the statement that "The basis of Canada's riches is the fertillity of the soil, and to freak of warfare' can injure that while her grain will locrease in demand as the population of the world grows. As an investment field Canada's worthy of consideration," These words are well worthy of most street as this eminent imanerial pourant. With a final area exceeding that of the United States and with tilable areas coming under cultivation, the wealth of Canada's future can scarcely be estimated, while the wealth today is such is to bring her most prominently before the world.
