The lady suffragettes of Boston and other cities, or any of our athletic misses of Ann Arbor or Ypsilanti haven't anything on some of our Farmington ladies, as Mrs. Charles Ely and daughter, Mrs. William Ely, can prove, when they "hiked" out and back Tuesday afternoon, to the farm home of Mrs. John Melow, who is also a daughter of the former.

Mrs. E. E. Holcomb received a letter from a nurse in the hospital at Lansing stating that people were walking the streets with scarlet fever. No patients were now admitted to the hospital, and those who were in, as soon as able were disinfected and sent out, and she also said that the same epidemic had kept Kalamazoo physicians busy.

The lecture given at the Town Hall Friday night under the auspices of the High School Lecture Course, by the mountaineer, Nelson Hatfield, was enjoyed by a goodly number. The story was told in true mountaineer style, and Mr. Hatfield, Jr., has proven himself to be a man among men, and also one who could be numbered among the self-made class, if surroundings, culture and antecedents have any bearing on a youngster's future.

merchant and his clerks try to make a sale that will fit your needs. They give you the benefit of their intelligence and experience. They speak of defects to be avoided and give information about goods. In making this kind of purchase you get service, something more than the mere goods handed over the counter. And if they don't fit, you get satisfaction.

By a vote of 180 to 76 the voters of Holly last week declared themselves in favor of bonding the village in the sum of $30,000 for the construction of a municipal lighting plant.

Enterprise lurers—they pay.

"QUALITY"

With us Quality is more than a mere advertising term. It means a product that at every point has the maximum worth of materials, workmanship and finish. It includes the "know how," the ability to interpret and give expression to the best in style. Represents superior judgment in the selection of goods, stands for more skill, greater durability and greater value for the money. We have found it best to sell goods of quality.

ALL NIGHT

The best burglar insurance you can have is a light burning all night—the most convenient thing you can have is an all night lamp burning in the bath room, the hall or on the porch. You can have this great convenience with a small size at a cost of about ONE CENT A NIGHT. Mazda Lamps take only about one-third of the quantity of electricity required for the old style carbon lamps—which is to say, they will burn three times as long for the same amount of current.

You simply cannot afford to be without these wonderfully economical lamps in the house.

Purchases Without Service.

"Going farther and faring worse." How truly this trite old phrase applies in buying home supplies. People will pay car fare to some distant city, exhaust themselves with a day of shopping, waste valuable time, and return with goods they could have bought better at home. And they admit it.

Making a wise purchase is not simply handing over your money to a machine. You want some personal service. You don't get that out of a mail order house shipment, or from some stranger clerk in a distant department store.

On the contrary, the home
