Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Avery on their new arrival. It's a boy, Andrew Lincoln, born on June 16 who tipped the scales at 8 pounds and 5 ounces. The folks reside on Thorpe Drive Court and other members of the family include Charles who is nine, and Molly, two years old.

'Twas a bon voyage party on Monday, July 7, for the following youngsters who left yesterday from Kennedy Airport for 37 glorious days in Europe. The affair was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lichtman on Kendallwood Drive.

These North Farmington high schoolers will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Fitzgerald and all the following are from the Kendallwood area: Bonnie Bronted, Sue Lichtman, Warren Robinson, Terry Rosenhaus, Sue Strand, Kathy Soblak, Mike Thompson, Donna Keesey, Donna Long, Sandy Schultz, Kay Sullivan and Ray Mazurek.

Not only will they have summer school in Europe but will visit London, Amsterdam, Cologne, Cologne, Heidelberg, Munich, Salzburg, Venice, Florence, Rome, Milan, Leyden, Paris, and return Aug. 17.

How can we, as Realtors, help most to make America better?

ANSWER — By making Americans better: by giving to an increased number of our citizens the opportunity to be stockholders in the greatest corporation in the entire world, the United States of America.

By making it possible for more people to possess — to own, a piece of this Good Earth on which they will build their homes.

By having one appreciate his greatest personal interest in preserving all that is good in this country — good for all of us — and discarding all "isms" except Americanism. Nothing will make us better Americans than to own a piece of America. What can be better for America than that?
