

CHURCH NOTES.

Salem Evangelical.
Rev. A. C. Stange will preach next Sunday morning at 10:45, eastern time, in the Clarenceville German church.
The Farmington Ladies' Aid meets on the first Wednesday in each month at the parsonage.

Baptist Church.
Rev. J. W. Salton, Pastor.
Morning subject, "Strange and Stirring Events of Today." Evening, "The Rock in the Sands."
Sunday school at noon.
Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Dorcas society will meet at the home of Mrs. Boehm, Friday September 14th. Everybody cordially invited.

Universalist Church
The sermon delivered in the church edifice Sunday afternoon by Dr. W. A. Moore, of Detroit, was very interesting and instructive, although the attendance was not as large as desired.
In two weeks there will be services again, which all are requested to remember and urged to attend.

Methodist Church
Rev. James Priestley, Minister.
Dr. M. W. Lau, of the Central Presbyterian church, Detroit, a recognized bible teacher, will preach both morning and evening at the regular hours next Sunday. Be sure and hear him.

Sunday school at the close of the morning service, and we would like to hear that it was a record Sunday school.
Prayer meeting Thursday evening—let everyone be present, and make it a time of uplift.
The pastor will be away at conference this week. The reports he takes to conference are the best in the history of the church.

Ladies' Aid met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Collins, with a fine attendance. The annual report was given, and showed that the year had been one of success. Over $300 had been raised by the society. It was voted to meet once a month in the future instead of every two weeks. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Priestley at the parsonage, September 20th. The following were elected for the year: Mrs. William Irish, president; Mrs. Lottie McArthur, vice president; Mrs. Charles Collins, secretary; Mrs. M. B. Pierce, treasurer.

Devoted to the upbuilding of Farmington and Oakland County

"My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty."

The frequency of diseases of a serious nature arising from unsanitary conditions, which take a horrible toll of human lives unnecessarily, and costs in the aggregate, huge sums of money, emphasizes the importance of taking every possible step to obtain more sanitary conditions and to instill in the minds of the people the importance of making conditions in and around their homes as sanitary as possible. It is well understood by every intelligent citizen that a very large percentage of disease is preventable. The health of the children demands clean homes with sanitary surroundings.

One of Farmington's busy housewives enthusiastically remarked the other day: "The Enterprise comes to the house Friday morning, and if I'm sweeping, I sit right down and read every word before doing anything else." This is a true story, and worthy of note, not in any way giving us a "boastful" feeling, but encouraging us to greater efforts in making the paper better and more sought after. We wish to have an interesting paper, and you can help us make it so by phoning in your items to 10 or 25.

Would it not be a step toward progress if Farmington merchants and citizens were to organize a commercial club, board of trade or some society for the promotion of business and social interests of the town and community? Even the little town of Novi has a board of trade and they are "doing things" for the progress of their village. Many beneficial enterprises can be secured for our village if a concerted effort is put forth.

Money in circulation in this country on August 1st totaled 4,852 million dollars, compared with 4,850 million dollars on July 1st and 4,000 million dollars on August 1st of last year. The circulation per capita on August 1st was $46.53 compared with $46.57 a month previous and $39 a year ago. The population of Continental United States is now estimated at 104,288,000 compared with 102,574,000 one year ago.

A proposition that is gaining in approval about the state in regard to the licensing of automobiles is to make each number perpetual as long as a car is in existence. The price of a license would remain the same. It is claimed this system would prevent the present stealing of cars, as a car once numbered could not be driven under any other number.

The so-called quiet days in town at this time of the year mean good times this fall. The farmers are gathering their harvest and it is a good one too—something they have not enjoyed the past three years. Let us rejoice and be happy.—Rochester Clarion.

The taxpayers of the city of Detroit will vote in November on a proposition to bond for $2,795,000 for a new bridge to Belle Isle.

The government has ordered 7,500,000 pounds of beans.

The Sunday school class meeting was held at the home of Clara Shear September 11th. Although several members were absent, a good time was had by all present. A play will be given soon by the members of the class.

After the meeting was closed a lunch of sandwiches and cake was served, all the girls having to eat with their left hand or pay a forfeit. After this games were played and prizes awarded; also Ella Westfall, a new member, was initiated.

A special meeting will be held with Anna Peterson this (Friday) evening. Every member is especially urged to attend this meeting. The next regular meeting will be with Miss Winifred Walling west of town.

From All Over.

The funeral of John J. Smith, a pioneer of Walled Lake, who died last week, was held at the home of his daughter last Friday. He was born in 1823, and had lived in the vicinity of Walled Lake since 1857. Three children, 15 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren survive him.

The principal of the Pontiac high school, S. M. Dudley, who is a band director, has consented to take charge of a County Y. M. C. A. band. Auction sale time is drawing near, and we are well prepared to get you out a good bill and at a price that is right.

The Human Machine.

The human body is merely a piece of machinery, and must be so treated. The child who has been reared without thought of future health will very likely be a degenerate physically, and the man who is a perfect specimen at twenty may be an invalid at thirty through his own carelessness. A machine to do the best work must be in perfect condition all the time. If something is out of gear for three months, the machine may continue to run, but its efficiency will not be up to the standard and its period of usefulness will be shortened. The same is true in an even greater degree in the human machine. If health means wealth, no person can afford to gamble with their fortune.

What a Common Did. Even the lowly common when misplaced may be the cause of disaster. Of this no better instance can be found than that where the printer, setting up a little story, asserts: "The two young men spent the early part of the evening with two young ladies, and after they left, the girls got into a disgraceful fist fight."
