Try a liner. It will pay you.

BELIEVE IN YOURSELF.

Have faith in yourself. Self distrust is the cause of most of our failures. In the assurance of the strength of the world, and they, who have no faith in themselves.

Spanish at Saloniki.

Saloniki contains a large number of Spanish speaking inhabitants, but very surprising, perhaps in a mongrel city of the near east, but explained by the fact that large numbers of Spanish Jews, exiled some centuries ago, took refuge there and carried their language.

Good Salesman.

The efficient salesman is a man who can get a job, probably a better one from a financial standpoint than you can give him. The production man, with his tendency to stricter discipline and his idea of fifty wages, rarely understands the more temperamental and emotional sales type.

Uruguay's Whitewash.

Attention of travelers through Uruguay is attracted to the fine white color of the farm buildings even during the wet season. The effect is obtained by a whitewash in which the juice of the common cactus plays the prominent part. The allied leaves are macerated in water for twenty-four hours, and to this mixture lime is added. The wash applied to any substance produces a beautiful pearly white appearance which lasts for years.

Funny Stories.

"Ha, ha!" said the jocular man as he slapped an acquaintance on the back. "I'm glad to see you. I have one of the funniest stories on record, and you are just in time."

Russia.

Russia did not break into European history until comparatively recent times. Russia's Yermagin chief seems to have been the first to establish a permanent, about 862. Ruric's descendants ruled amid many ups and downs till 1638, at which time the real history of the country may be said to begin.

Her Compliment.

"Does your wife ever pay you any compliments?" asked Proletek Jimson of his friend Benderley. "Never," replied Benderley. "Well, mine does; she flatters me."

"Pemmican" a Cree Word.

The word "pemmican" really means a sausage. According to Father A. Lacombe's Cree-French dictionary, it is a Cree word, derived as follows: "Pintik (meat), grease, fat; plimkew, grease; plimkewin, the act of making pemmican, grease, etc.; plimkikan, a bag filled with a mixture of grease and wounded meat."

Making the Best of It.

There was a worthless old chap whom they tarred and feathered in Grayevard. "So they tarred and feathered you," said a curious friend. "Yep. They tarred and feathered me."

Reflex Intimidation.

Eleanor—I've refused Edgar five times.

Dorothy—Well?

Eleanor—Here's a note saying he lends me this lovely diamond ring to wear until I accept him.

Kicker—One family out of eight has an automobile. Doctor—Then a motorist can run over only seven families.—Litt.

PICK THE GOOD SPOTS.

We make life hard for ourselves by our habit of counting the knocks and emphasizing all the bad spots in the road. We forget a thousand mercies, but we remember every disappointment and carefully mark down every rebuff. We manage to spoil a lot of sunny days with the memory of one cloudy one.

Superfluity.

Teacher—Thomas, I mention a few of the proofs that the earth is round like an orange. Tommy Tucker—I didn't know we had to have any proofs, ma'am. I thought everybody admitted it.—Exchange.

Correct For Once.

"What is the worst thing about riches?" asked a school teacher of a pupil.

"Their scarcity," replied the pupil, and was immediately awarded top marks.—Short Stories.

Its Sup.

"There is one thing I was wondering about the stocking bank of the country."

"What's that?"

"What it would foot up!"—Baltimore American.

American Peace Society.

The American Peace Society is the oldest peace organization in this country. It was organized in New York City May 8, 1828, and was formed by the merging of many state and local societies. The oldest of them, the New York, dated back to 1812. It was situated in Boston from 1837 to 1911, when its headquarters were moved to Washington.
