Rev. James Priestley, Minister. Thursday afternoon the Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Priestley. A fine company was out at this the first meeting of the conference year. Plans were made for the fair, which is to be held Friday, December 6th. The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. E. Roos Thursday, October 18th.

It was a most encouraging congregation that greeted the pastor last Sunday morning. It promises well for the year. The message for next Sunday morning will be on the following theme: "The Finest Accompaniment." We hope to see the largest congregation at our service Sunday morning. Will you be one of the number?

Sunday school meets at the close of the morning service. You are welcome to meet with us for the study of the word. Plan for Rally Day; watch for date.

It was a pleasure to have such a goodly congregation last Sunday evening; there is going to be a larger one next Sunday. The message for this service will appeal to you. Come and hear it.

Thursday evening, October 4, there will be a stereopticon lecture on "South America." This is the first of a series of such lectures. Everyone should hear this lecture. An offering will be taken.

We have announced that the first Sunday evening will be devoted to answering questions sent to the pastor. If you have any questions of religious interest write them out, sign your name and the pastor will try and answer them on one of these "question box" nights.

Chancery Notice

STATE OF MICHIGAN
In the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland.—In Chancery.

Fred M. Warner, Plaintiff,

Loren Chapin, Oliver B. Smith, Mary Herriek, R. W. Gould, The Unknown Wife of Delos Davis, the unknown wife of Henry N. Walker, the Unknown Wife of Thaddeus S. Kent, Williams, Harris & Company, a partnership composed of Aras G. Williams, Lovell B. Harris and Rodney C. Wood, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, Defendants.

At a session of said court, held at the Court House, in the City of Pontiac, County and State aforesaid, on the 14th day of September, A. D. 1917.

Present: Honorable George W. Smith, Circuit Judge.

In this cause it is satisfactorily appearing to the court by the sworn bill of complaint, filed in said cause, that the above named defendants are necessary and proper parties to said cause, and that the present whereabouts of the said defendants, their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns are unknown and cannot be ascertained.

On motion of Pelton & McGee, attorneys for plaintiff:

It is Ordered, that the said defendants, Loren Chapin, Oliver B. Smith, Mary Herriek, R. W. Gould, the unknown wife of Delos Davis, the unknown wife of Henry N. Walker, the unknown wife of Thaddeus S. Kent, Williams, Harris & Company, a co-partnership, composed of Aras G. Williams, Lovell B. Harris and Rodney C. Wood, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, cause their appearance to be entered in said cause within three months from the date of this order, and that in default thereof the bill of complaint be taken as confessed by the said defendants, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns.

It is further ordered that within twenty days from the date hereof, the plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be published in the Farmington Enterprise, a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said County of Oakland, once in each week, for six successive weeks, or that a copy of this order be personally served upon each of the said defendants at least twenty days before the time prescribed for their appearance.

GEORGE W. SMITH, Circuit Judge.

MARTHA E. MAURER, Deputy Clerk.

TAKE NOTICE That this suit is commenced, and is brought to quiet title and correct description to the following described premises, situated in the Village of Farmington, County of Oakland, State of Michigan, and more particularly described as follows:

A parcel of land shown on the recorded plat of Davis Addition to the said Village of Farmington, on that said known as Simmons' Acre and Lot One (1) of said addition, and being located on the Northwest Quarter of Section Twenty-seven (27), Town One (1) North, Range Nine (9) East, and bounded as follows: On southerly side by the northerly line of the Detroit and Howell Plank Road (also known as the Grand River Road and the Gravel Road) on the northerly side by the southerly line of Ebenezer Stewart's plat of the Village of Farmington; on the easterly side by land owned and occupied by the Farmington Exchange Bank (being land formerly owned by Warren B. Selby), and on the westerly side by land owned by Amanda M. Colman.

The church was well filled Sunday afternoon to listen to the sermon by Dr. W. A. Moore. Dr. Moore was well pleased, and so stated, adding that it was certainly an inspiration to talk when the house was filled with an interesting audience, and since he had enjoyed his vacation he was "just full of energy, and was glad to work off the surplus among his many Farmington friends." The sermon was fine from start to finish, making it
