INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. B. B. SUTCLIFFE, Extension Department, Moody Bible Institute. (Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 2

NEHEMIAH BUILDS THE WALL OF JERUSALEM.

LESSON TEXT—Nehemiah 4:1-11. GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord is my Helper and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.—Hebrews 13:6.

The lesson of November 18 spoke of Nehemiah journeying to Jerusalem. After his arrival he spent three days looking over the work; then he told the priests and other leaders his plans. Enthusiasm was awakened, all classes were aroused, the work of the building of the wall of the city was apportioned among the people, and soon half of the wall was completed "for the people had a mind to work."

1. The Wrath of the Enemy, vv. 7-9. The progress of the work kept up, the gates of Sanballat the Eorontite and his friends who formed an alliance to hinder the wall being built (vv. 7, 8). When God begins to work through his people, Satan is aroused and tries to interfere. It is no sign that a Christian is out of the will of God when opposition is felt. The enemy will always be on hand to try to hinder whenever a real work for God is going forward. Dual formal Christianity runs smoothly and with deadly monotony and Satan lets it alone, but as soon as some results of real work are seen, opposition is set on foot. Thus it was when God sent his Son into the world, and so it has been in every movement for God in the church, and so it will be in the individual Christian life. From the next verse (10) we would almost think that Nehemiah had heard our Lord's injunction to "watch and pray." Many do much watching and fall; but none ever turns to watch and pray without finding victory. Prayer alone means sloth; watching alone means pride; but watching and praying victory.

2. Internal Opposition, vv. 10-14. Sanballat and his friends were not the only ones Nehemiah had to contend with. Among those that worked on the wall were some shirkers and grumblers. They had become discouraged in the work and began to say they could never complete it (v. 10). If Satan fails to hinder the work from the outside, he will attempt to create dissatisfaction on the inside. Internal confusion of the church is more to be dreaded than open opposition from a known enemy. Dissension and confusion in the church can usually be traced to workers becoming discouraged. The plot of the enemy to make a surprise attack was discovered by the Jews who lived outside the city. They reported it not once, but ten times, with the suggestion that the work on the wall be stopped, and safety sought by leaving the city altogether (vv. 11, 12). When the enemy's open opposition fails and discouragement has been tried, the plot is made to bring fear upon the workers. But the Bible is full of exhortations for Christians to "fear not." Could these workers on the walls of Jerusalem have seen the success, it would have made little difference to them whether the enemies were numbered by tens or thousands, and could Christians today realize that God is for them, all opposition would be as nothing. (I Cor. 15:13; Rom. 8:31; Phil. 4:13). Nehemiah at once proceeded to ally the forces (18, 14). Armed forces were arranged about the walls to guard against the reported surprise attacks. The warriors were placed so that in the event of battle they would be protecting their own particular families. Then Nehemiah made a short speech of encouragement to the people, the heart of which was "Remember the Lord which is great and terrible." Remembering him would drive the fear away. They who are on the Lord's side are already victors even before the battle has begun. Someone said to a great general before a certain battle began: "I hope the Lord is on our side." [The reply was: "I trust we are on the Lord's side." When this is true, there need be no fear whether the enemies be few or many. Nehemiah then exhorted them to fight for their families and their homes. This two-fold secret of the victory is presented to us over and over in this book of Nehemiah, and nowhere is so prominent as in this lesson. Victory for the Christian depends on two things: We must trust in the Lord as though all depended on him, and we must work and fight as though all depended on us. This is the secret of the success of Nehemiah.

3. The Progress of the Work, (vv. 15-21). The speech of Nehemiah having quieted the fears of the people and the enemy having heard that their plans were known and that God had brought them counsel to fight, all the people returned to the work with renewed enthusiasm and purpose (15). There was a rearrangement of forces (16-21). Half of the people worked while the other half stood guard. A trumpet was blown by Nehemiah, so that at the first alarm from outside all the workers and warriors could be called to the threatened spot. They went ahead with building of the wall

Changing the buying habits of thousands

Bond's Economic Principal of Clothing Distribution Brings Thousands of Men to Bond's Busy Stores

is as simple as it is effective; it is not hard to understand; it is in no way complicated. In fact, it is the straightforward, DIRECT methods we use that brought Bond's to the front and made it, in a little over two years, A POWER TO BE RECKONED WITH in the clothing world.

First, we STARTED right. We planned for months; we INVESTIGATED. We knew that men were becoming more particular about their clothes, and the majority of men wanted more clothes, but felt they couldn't afford the kind they wanted.

NOW they can. Men who formerly paid the ordinary retailer $25 to $30 now buy BOND'S CLOTHES and SAVE the difference. They now wear the kind of clothes they want, but instead of paying a retailer more, just because a retailer has more expenses, these men buy DIRECT FROM THE MAKER—from Bond's. Yes, we've changed the buying habits of thousands!

Bond's Clothes---

are certainly worthy of your careful inspection. They are wonderful values, from the standpoint of fabrics, style and tailoring. Even though our idea might have been right, we could never have attained our present tremendous proportions unless our MERCHANDISE was right.
