Our Greetings

Farmington, Mich. December 28, 1927.

TO OUR PATRONS.—

We extend to you, most heartily, the season's greetings, wishing you a very happy and a prosperous New Year.

We are extremely grateful to you for your patronage, which has helped to make the year about to close, the greatest in our history.

Our new and greater store, pactly double in size, evidences the confidence and respect of the thousands of our patrons who have made possible our wonderful growth and expansion.

In anticipation of the needs of our greater store vast stocks of merchandise were purchased far in advance, many of which, under present market conditions, have doubled in value—the original marking of these goods conforming to the low purchase prices.

Yours very truly,

Fred L. Cook & Co.
