THE STORY OF—

CHURNGOLD

as a relief from sky-high prices of a "Spread for Bread" in France years ago, LEWIS NAPOLEON, French Emperor, offered a prize for the best substitute. Hipolite Mege made Oleomargarine, even in its crude form, was of high food value, and gave fine satisfaction. About 20 years ago a Cincinnati butterine dealer wanted a better "Spread for His Bread," he made Churngold. Constant efforts at improvement have resulted in the delicious product we have just introduced in your town. Use it on your bread or in cooking. It will give you fine satisfaction and the cost will be responsible.

Ford NOW

's a mighty important word if you are going to buy a FORD CAR. We cannot 'stock up' with cars during the winter months, to be in readiness to meet the spring trade, because FORD CARS are used EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR. If there is six feet of snow and the thermometer below zero here, there's warm sunshine and summer flowers in Florida and many other states, and there everybody wants a FORD. The demand is just as eager and insistent in winter as it is in summer.

There's no telling what DEMANDS the war may make. The ALL-AROUND UTILITY of the FORD CAR specifies it as something that will be PROFITABLE to you.

Its USEFULNESS makes its purchase a GOOD INVESTMENT.

TODAY you can buy one with confidence of delivery. BUY NOW, TODAY.

Pioneer Dropped Dead

The community was shocked

Monday afternoon by the report that George Seeley had been found dead on the floor of his son's residence, the result of apoplexy. Mr. Seeley had been spending the morning with his son Wesley, and after eating his dinner sat down in a chair complaining that he was feeling bad, shortly afterward falling to the floor dead.

George Ephraim Seeley was born July 14, 1849, at Toronto,

Ont., and passed to the great beeyond on the afternoon of February 4, 1918, at 2 o'clock, from apoplexy at the home of his son

Wesley, at Nichols' Siding, aged 77 years, 6 months and 22 days.

He was the fourth child of Zachariah L. and Julia Seeley and one of a family of eleven children, eight of whom have preceded him.

Mr. Seeley was united in marriage with Harriett A. Orr 56 years ago, and to this union were born six children, three having died in infancy, and together with the widow he is survived by three sons, Wesley,

Seymour and Clyde, all of whom reside in this county. There are also 10 grandchildren and three sisters, Mrs. Jennie Kitchner, of Detroit; Mrs. Clara Mills, who is in Florida, and Mrs. Gusta Washburn of Chicago, Ohio, the two latter being unable to be present.

He was a charter member of Farmington Lodge, No. 151, F.

& A. M. and a member of the Maceabees, the former organization having the funeral, which was held at the home of his son,

Wesley, Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Priestley officiating. Burial was made at North Farmington cemetery.

CHURCH NOTES

Salem Evangelical

Rev. A. C. Stange will preach next Sunday morning at 10:45, eastern time, in the Farmington

German church.

The Farmington Ladies Aid

meets on the first Wednesday of each month at the parsonage.

Methodist Church

Rev. James Priestley, Minister.

Last Sunday the services were well attended. We expect our service will be equal in every way next Sunday. We know you will do your part to make them so. The morning service at 10:30 will be one of inspiration. The pastor's inspirational message should be heard by all.

A welcome awaits you and yours.

Last Sunday's session of Sunday school was one not soon to be forgotten. If you have not been to Sunday school lately, you could not do better than make a new start Sunday. The lesson for Sunday is "Discipleship and its Meaning," Mark 7:19.

The song service held every Sunday evening from 6:30 to 7 is being greatly enjoyed. We shall look for your Sunday evening. The evening service at 7, when the pastor will give an address on "Abraham Lincoln."

In these stressful days we need to think about the men who have made this nation what it is.

There will be good music. Come early.

The Woman's Home Missionary society will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Collins.

The meeting will be led by Mrs.

M. Truscott, the topic being,

"Old Settlers." Please bring your needles and thimbles.

If you have not been to prayer meeting for a while you do not know what you are missing.

Our study for next meeting is the 13th chapter of John.
