St. Valentine's Is. Scene Of Nuptials

St. Valentine's Church in Redford Township was the setting for the wedding of Linda S. Kuneman and Terry B. Hoffman in a double ring ceremony June 7.

MRS. TERRY B. HOFFMAN (Linda S. Kuneman)

Both Michigan State University students, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kuneman of Brady, in Redford Township, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Hoffman of Monroe.

The bridal gown and those of her attendants were all made by their waivers. The bride's floor length A-line gown of nylon organza over tulle used Venice lace daisies for trim around the neckline and hemline and on the full bishop sleeves. The trim was repeated on the detachable train and on the Camelot cap that clasped her three-tier finger tip illusion veil. Her bouquet was a nosegay of lilies of the valley and white and yellow daisies.

Bridal attendants were maid of honor Virginia Emmott of Livonia, and bridesmaids were the bride's sister Carol Gerometta and Candy Hessler, a classmate. Their identical floor length gowns were pale yellow silk organza over tulle and they wore clear nylon picture hats trimmed with yellow and white daisies covering the crown and trim.

Colleen Dixon, a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. The bride's nephew, John Leno Gerometta was ring bearer.

Tom Deatger was best man and ushers were Tom Wagner and the bride's brothers Tom and Gary. Green silk organza over tulle was chosen by the bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore a pink sheer coat dress with matching accessories.
