GOV. SLEEPER WARNS PUBLIC

Issues Proclamation Calling on Citizens to Observe Laws.

Lansing, Mich.—Governor Sleeper does not want such rule to prevail in Michigan. While some of the offenses committed by enemies of the government have been of such character that local citizens have taken the law into their own hands, the governor begs them to remember that Michigan has courts to punish the guilty.

"I feel it my duty, as governor of Michigan, to warn the people of the state against the tendency to take the law into their own hands, because of certain conditions in their community," declared Governor Sleeper in a proclamation issued a few ago.

"It is no time for mob rule to supersede the jurisdiction of regularly constituted authority. I fully appreciate the lawlessness which have aroused some people to an opinion that they can only accomplish the desired results by taking the law into their own hands. There are courts and laws in the land and citizens must bow them to law."

"I am sure that the people of Michigan will stand by the law and the government, and will not permit any individual or group of individuals to take the law into their own hands."

"If any citizen believes he has cause to complain of the conduct of any other citizen, or inhabitant of his locality, the matter should at once be reported to the authorities, and left for them to deal with. I call upon all of our people to make this time of stress a period of careful law observance. The authorities of each community and county must see to it that peace and good order prevail, and that the laws of the state are upheld."

Copies of this proclamation have been mailed to the prosecuting attorneys and sheriffs of the various counties, to local police chiefs in the various municipalities. While the governor does not want any guilty person to escape punishment, he wants offenders dealt with by constituted authority.

CHURCH NOTESSalem Evangelical

Rev. A. C. Stange will preach next Sunday morning at 10:45, eastern time, in the Clarenceville German church.

The Farmington Ladies Aid meets on the first Wednesday of each month at the parsonage.

Methodist Church

Rev. James Priestley, Minister.

The Ladies' Aid society met last Sunday with Mrs. Oscar Smith. Every member of the Aid should plan to be at these monthly meetings.

Sunday next will be Memorial Day. The members of the Farmington G. A. R. will be in attendance at the morning service. Memorial day this year will be made very memorable; none should fail to be in attendance. It should have a larger significance than ever now that our own American lads are suffering and dying on the battle fields of Europe. The pastor will preach an appropriate sermon.

The Sunday school at the close of the morning service is for everyone. The study lesson is Mark 12: 1-44. Let us make it a record day.

Sunday evening the song service will be held 8:30. This will be the last until fall; help make it a rousing time.

The evening services at 7:30 should be well attended. Do not fail to be present Sunday evening. We honor the memory of our dead soldiers, and the finest way to show it this year is to be at every service next Sunday.

President Wilson has set apart Decoration Day as a day of prayer. Do not fail to be at Prayer meeting, and also spend a few minutes in the morning in prayer.

The June meeting of the M. E. Ladies' Aid will be held with Mrs. Lottie McArthur.

Every Family Needs This Splendid MedicineConstipation, Stomach and Liver Trouble Quickly Overcome

Constipation is such a serious affliction that it is supposed to be more prolific of human misery than any other one cause.

The effects of constipation are well known. It leads to the poisoning of the entire system, and the train of evils that follow constipation is almost limitless. Stomach and liver disorders, indigestion, dizziness, foul breath and furred tongue, gas and belching; a bloated feeling in the stomach and bowels; loss of appetite, inability to sleep, headache, irritability of temper; these are some of the common results of constipation; there are many others.

Foley's Orino Laxative for stomach, liver and bowels is made of the active principle of certain simple laxative herbs. It acts very surely, but so gently that it is the ideal medicine for babies and children, as well as grown persons and elderly people. It does not contain alcohol, and many people cannot stand, nor does it contain any harmful drugs.

Foley's Orino Laxative keeps stomach sweet, liver active, bowels regular.

Mr. Ben L. Griffin, State examiner and lecturer before the Michigan State Bar Association, member of the Michigan State Bar Association, and member of the Michigan State Bar Association, says: "For years I have been bothered with stomach and liver trouble. I have tried to take calomel, but to no good now. I find I can obtain the same results from Foley's Orino Laxative. I consider this a very fine remedy, and no home should be without it."

Foley's Orino Laxative keeps stomach sweet, liver active, bowels regular.
