

ON THEIR WAY — Gerry Bopp and John Harris, both of Farmington, their bikes and gear looked like this when they took off to pedal to Mackinac Island July 27. They made it to the island, but didn't quite make it back and had to be picked up 150 miles out of Farmington, arriving here August 5.

Tandem Bikers Make 575 Mile Trip--Almost

"Bicycle Built for Two" might now be the theme song of two Farmington boys—Gerry Bopp and John Harris. The pair recently took a tandem bike trip 575 miles up to

Mackinac City and back—well, not quite back—they had bike trouble 150 miles out of Farmington and had to be picked up, but they almost made it. Gerry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren G. Bopp, 26338 Hidden Valley Dr., attends Ferris State when he isn't bicycling or working summers in the Farmington Bike Shop.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris, 26090 Pleasant Dr., John also works for the bike shop in the summer and is a student at the University of Michigan, winters. The boys bought their 10-speed racing tandem last fall, but couldn't take their trip then. After many preparations and peeling their gear down to 30 pounds they took off from here July 27, riding all night to East Lansing and arrived back from Mackinac Aug. 5.

Along the way they met a few Farmington people, who spotted them by their Farmington T-shirts. Joe Squair of Farmington saw them in Wilson State Park near Harrison and fed them a good meal, but several strangers also befriended the wayfarers.
