Hood's 6th Shutout Wins Mack Title

Talk about "story book" pennant chases. The one that decided the kings-in the Greater Livonia County Mack League's American Division rates as a classic.

It wound up Saturday night in a special playoff in which Hubert Realty, represented for the most part by players from Livonia Stevenson High, downing Allen Fence, comprised mostly of Livonia Bentley players, 2-0, at Ford Field.

There were moments that neither figured to get into the playoff.

Each team had to sit back last week and hope that somebody would knock off the Bryant Walker team of Garden City.

WHEN B AND V Construction of Novi beat Bryant Walker, the regular season chase ended in a deadlock with Allen and Hubert tied with records of nine victories, two defeats and three ties.

Walker, meantime, showed a mark of 9-3-2 in the league in which no ties are made up.

Saturday's playoff duel matched Bob Hood from Hubert and Stevenson against Ken Gawkowski from Allen and Bentley. Hood, the pitcher - or - the year in the Mack League, added to his amazing record when he wound up with his sixth shutout achievement of the season. But this one was a struggle all the way.

He gave up three hits, walked six and was in a jam in six of the seven innings.

IN ONE INNING, Allen jammed the bats and Hood coolly fanned the next two men and retired the third on an infield out.

The Livonia League Senior Citizens Mixed League also will have 16 teams again and the competition is certain to be as hot for the members already as at practice.

The victory qualified Hubert to represent the League in the Mack District tournament at Trenton starting on Friday.

IT'LL be a double - elimination - match and this time Gawkowski will be on the Hubert side. So will John Schroeter and Dave Rice, two other Allen players who have been added as the three extra players a team may take into the tournament.

Gawkowski pitched almost as brilliantly as Hood in the title game. He allowed only two hits, fanned seven and walked five.

AN ERROR in the first inning paved the way for the first Hubert run. Bob Ficano received the ball and went all the way to second from where he came around when Stu Rose singled.

That's the way matters stood until Randy Rickerson walked in the sixth. He was sacrificed to second and raced home when Dave Gregor slapped the second baseman, Allen threatened to score. The biggest Allen threat came in the sixth inning when the bases were loaded before Hood shut the gates to post his sixth victory of the season against two ties.

Bill Baether clobbered two of the hits for the losers.

It's become habit-forming... and a happy one at that for Redford Township.

For the seventh straight year a Redford team has captured the championship in the Greater Livonia Baseball League's Free Press competition.

Seven straight years! A New York Yankee dynasty!

First it was the guidance of Turner... now under Bob Atkins.

The Turners added to their streak when they knocked out Northville in two straight games in the 1969 playoffs last week.

First it was 2-1, then 9-4 in last Friday's deciding game at Northville.

THE TWO TEAMS had shared in the regular-season laurels. Northville had roared through the first half, then Redford, playing like the champs they've been, made it strictly Redford in the second-half... and in the playoffs that followed.

So, now Redford looks ahead to the exciting phase of the Free Press program in which Redford has dominated too.

The Redfordites will begin defense of the Free Press-ostiate crown a week from Thursday at Manz Field in Detroit. They'll be playing a team from Oakland County in the opener of a double-elimination series which finishes at the University of Michigan twodays later.

For the outstate champ, a trip to Johnson, Pa., and All America BOY's championship will be the prize.

And, who'll forget that Redford Township in 1968 gained the finals at Johnston before losing to New Orleans for the national crown.

BUT, ATKINS and his current forces, are taking only one game at a time.

"It's proud - very proud - the way our boys bounced back in the second half of the season and in the playoffs," Atkins explained after Redford had knocked out Northville.

"It's this kind of comeback and improvement that makes a coach happy. A team has to be something special to bounce back the way our fellows did. It's not easy."

In the deciding game against Northville, the score truly didn't reflect how the game really went.

Despite the fact Redford built up a 9-0 lead, pitcher Tim Carr of the victors went through some struggling.

"Good thing our big bats were booming," said Atkins, who's convinced that his 1969 team is a far more powerful outfit at a walk to Jim Powers and a successful double steal made it 2-0.

REDFORD EXPLODED for four runs on loser Jeff Taylor in the fifth inning.

Bill Howe opened with a single. After Kirk Taylor singled, Lee Bjerkie and Bill Holmes singled, the latter driving in two runs. Joe Himmelman singled in another and two more walks - to Powers and Tim Carr - finished the four-run uprising.

Redford added a run in the sixth when Bill Fahey tripled and straddled home on Kirk Taylor's single.

The final two runs came in the seventh when Powers singled, went to second on a wild pitch and scored on Dan Sweney's single. Sweney then came around on Howe's second hit.

BILL WHITE'S double started the Northville seventh inning. Stan Nirdler singled, Jeff Taylor singled, Bill Cayley doubled and Rich Adams singled before Carr got the final out.

Redford will play a few tune-ups before entering the state competition.

The team will visit Mt. Pleasant Saturday for a double-header and next week hopes to play a game and two teams from the Free Press' strong Detroit Livonia area.

LARRY REHWOLDT, Farmington, took home the B-production trophy in B-Sedan. Roy Passerelli, Dayton Pt., was second in a Chrysler PT.

Glen Lyall, Livonia, easily won the Formula Ford class in his Lotus S1. Dave Shook, Rochester, was second and Bill Hallendal, Flint, was third.

Tom Francel, Green City, was the winner in F-production, driving his Alfa to a decisive victory over Richard Nason, Sterling Heights, Larry Schanz, Livonia, picked up third in his MG-A.

Garret Van Camp, Farmington's E-production record holder, moved into Formula Vee and won in the second section from Harold McDonald, a Royal Oak attorney.

Roger Koch, Columbus, O., battled his way to a victory over Art Stupha, Dearborn Heights, as both drove Mini-Coopers. Keith Gitz, Sterling Heights, finished third in his Anglia in C-Sedan.

CARL HARRINGTON, of Livonia, Waterford Hills' club president, flashed to a win in B-Sedan class in his NSU. Eric Holden, West Milton, O., was second and Bob Graber, Dayton, O., was third.

Huons in Sedan-A class went to John Addison of Plymouth in a Mustang. Charles King, Jr., Detroit, finished second in his Camaro and Warren Topp of Pontiac was third in his Mustang.

Bruce Chrisman, Louisville, Ky., drove his Corvette to a win in B-production, with Drew Mroz, Garden City, finishing second.

Then in the fourth, a double by Leland Dale, a wild pitch, a walk to Jim Powers and a successful double steal made it 2-0.

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

Leonard Schemanski, one of Livonia's most ardent bowlers, will realize one of his life-long ambitions Thursday night.

With appropriate ceremonies, he will be installed as president of the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, and to make the event more of a thrill, he is to be installed by his uncle, Frank G. Schemanski, judge of recorders' Court.

The installation is to be the highlight of the annual championship dinner, sponsored jointly by the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, and the Detroit Woman's Bowling Association, and scheduled at Mr. Pe's at 14-Mile Road and Van Dyke.

Aside from the installation of the new officers a tribute will be paid to the outgoing president, dinner, sponsored jointly by the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, and the Detroit Woman's Bowling Association, and scheduled at Mr. Pe's at 14-Mile Road and Van Dyke.

In taking over as president Schemanski will be the nominal head of the organization that now boasts more than 130,000 members. It is one of the largest in the country.

The new president has several ideas he hopes to inaugurate, but most of the work will be focused on preparations for the 1971 ABC tournament which has been awarded to Detroit.

THE EYES of the Junior Bowling world will be centered on Washington, D.C., on Friday morning as the annual All-American Youth championships get under way.

Michigan's representatives will include Kris Schmitz of Adrian, Vern Brown of Lansing and Robert Short of Washtenaw City.

Aside from the national titles, they will be competing for $1,000 scholarships along with entries from 48 states.

It is one of the few times that metropolitan Detroit is not represented on the Michigan team.

Dr. August Champ In Handball

Farmington's Dr. Steve August continues to reign as Michigan's finest handball player.

The 26-year-old physician was his third consecutive title outdoor three-wall title this past week when he downed Bob Ambros, 21-2, 21-6, in one of the most one-sided finals in the tourney's history.

In fact, Dr. August led only 23 points total in five matches in his march to the title.

Previously, he had won his fourth straight city title and second indoor title. He also teamed with his father, Dr. Alvin August of Farmington, to win the city and state indoor doubles crown.

Larry August, a pre-medical student at Michigan and former North Farmington High athlete, is no slouch at handball either.

Let's won junior titles.

HoleInOne

There was plenty of cheering at the Whispering Willows golf course in Livonia on Tuesday morning - and for a good reason.

The first hole - in - one had been registered after more than 50,000 rounds had been played on the new municipal layout.

Steve Dore, of Columbus, O., who was playing a friendly round with his father, R.C. Dore, 9728 Howell, Livonia, holed his tee shot on the 170-yard eighth hole with a No. 6 iron.

The shot gave him a 50 for the nine-hole journey.

Western Michigan University's baseball team set regular season records this season for most games in the season (40) and most victories (28).

singles by Bill Mehl and David Morris and then add two more in the fifth when Leitz tripled, Thomas singled and Kevin McEirly doubled.

But in the sixth, McKay's put together singles by Ron Sulka, Dave Valley and Rick Lang to knot the score at 6-6 and that's the way the game finished.

BIG BOY and Northville each engineered bicyclic victories in their title bids.

Big Boy (Thurston High) downed the Plymouth Elks, 6-2, while Northville gave the Livonia Spartans a severe jolt, 6-0.

John Munson turned in a three-hit effort in upping the Big Boy record to 10 wins, three defeats and a tie.

Big Boy scored three times in the first when Steve Krasgar walked and went to third on Tom Roy's single. They pulled a double steal for one run.

After Tim Carr walked, Gordon Exams single, Steve Stacey squeezed in a run, Tim Bradley walked and another double steal worked for a run.

Dennis Poppenger singled home Munson in the fourth while Carr and John Kemanan led to the final two Big Boy runs in the fifth inning.

FRED HOLDSWORTH stopped the Spartans on three hits as he fanned 13 to give Northville its 11th win of the season.

Steve Utley doubled in Rick LaRue with Northville's first run off loser Bob Silver in the first inning.

The 1-0 advantage remained until the sixth when an error, a triple by Jeff Taylor and singles by LaRue and Pat Cayley made it 3-0.

Then in the seventh Adams walked and Holdsworth singled before Taylor scored one out of the park for a three-run homer.

Area Drivers Are Champions At Waterford

Observant auto racers plucked honors over the weekend in the Waterford Hills Sports Car's monthly action.

John Addison of Plymouth won A-Sedan in a Mustang while Farmington's Larry Clingman won in his MG-B in E-Production. Third behind Clingman came Doug Miller of Plymouth in a Porsche 5.0.

Chuck Bartelbaugh, a 22-year-old speedster from Rochester, flashed to two victories at Waterford Hills Sports Car course Sunday by wide margins and continued his victory skinn which now has reached five.

Bartelbaugh walked off with the A-Sports Racing trophy in his McLaren Ford as he whipped Scott Glasgow, Dearborn, to a victory by a half-mile in the feature event.

Larry Clingman, of Farmington, won honors in his MG-B in E-production, with Vic Skirweg, Warren, second in a Porsche and Doug Miller, Plymouth, third in a Porsche B-90.
