Tire values are better than ever in Lee's lineup!
LEE OF CONSHOHOCKEN OWNED BY "GOODYEAR TIRE AND RUBBER"

Here's the new kind of tire which new performance level!

GT Belted RM

Delivers up to double the mileage!

Here's how the ultimate in tires got its reputation:
• Provides smooth ride and handling even on rough roads
• Provides long tread life and stability
• Polymers and bias plies eliminate chipping, delamination and squealing
• "Right" belts add protection against tread spalling, ridges and wear
• Wide tread for greater traction.

Truck-tread styling. A new look in a tire. The new GT Belted RM has a wide tread and a deep tread for better traction.

Wide Tread for Better Stability. The wide tread provides a firm, stable base for the tire. The wide tread also provides a firm, stable base for the tire.

Compared to most conventional new car tires. Actual mileage will depend on the tire size and driving conditions.

The Farmington Festival Days were a little bit much for you? Got that "Maybe I've overdone the calorie bit?" Weight Watchers will welcome you, fat or just plump, with open arms on Monday morning at the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church behind Demery's off 12 Mile Road, Weigh-in at 9:30 a.m.

Evening performance is at the Sarah Flaher Home on Inkster Road at 7 p.m. in the Labourite Hall. Or if you're undecided about the extra poundage and just want info, call Wilma Naville at 628-5867.

THE DAVID MULLS family of Locust Drive has recently returned from a fabulous trip down the Salmon River in northern Idaho. Conner, Dave, and all five of their children, Chris, Joe, David, Becky and Amanda, as well as Chris' wife Susie, were able to go.

They flew to Boise and from there drove into the mountains of Idaho where guides piloted them through the rapids and virgin wilderness of the Salmon River.

Remember the Robert Love family of Greenwillow I told you about last week and their several vacations within a short period of time? I didn't get around to tell you of their visit while in Missoula, with the Jack Dunsmore family, formerly of Greenwillow, now living just a few blocks from Margaret's sister in Rockville. It was a gay reunion for nine-year-old Linda, daughter of Margaret and Bob, for she had spent some happy Farmington school days with the Dunsmore daughter, Libby.

IT MIGHT BE interesting for those who know the oldest Dunsmore son, John, that he will be attending Oxford University in England come September. If you are in England during his stay in Oxford, he extends wishes for you to drop
