

Couple Wins Trap Trophy

FARMINGTON A husband and wife team from Farmington has captured the top trophy in state trap shooting competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lawrence of 33730 Hunters Pointe are the Dead Eye Dicks who won the husband and wife championship in competition at Mason, Mich.

Mrs. Lawrence pegged the bulls-eye on 93 and 94 out of 100 individual shots and her husband on 95 and 97 shots.

She used a Winchester Model 12 shotgun, he a Browning.

The two have been target shooting for three years and belong to a conservation club. They practice at the Birmingham Gun Club and Multi-Lake Conservation Club at Union Lake.

The Lawrence daughters, Debbie, 15, Carol, 14, and Sandy, 12, often join their parents on the target range.

'Getting-Together': No Adults Allowed

by HOWARD KOHN

FARMINGTON Mike White is inviting Farmington's young people to join in a volunteer group which will be doing everything from putting out a newspaper to talking about a "free university" to dancing in a coffeehouse.

WHITE, a 1969 high school graduate, has set up a preliminary get-together for Saturday at Universalist Unitarian Church, 2530 Halsted, Farmington, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m.

A jazz-jam band will be playing and three Detroit-area activists will be speaking.

The three will be Rev. Robert Morrison of St. Joseph Episcopal in Detroit who gave sanctuary to draft-protesting Tom Sincovich earlier this year and who has been an outspoken war critic.

Haywood Wilson, who was director of Detroit's Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) for 12 years and is now on the New Detroit Committee.

Carla Adereata, a graduate of St. Mary's of Notre Dame and a Peace Corps alumnae.

White already has some projects lined up if response to the youth corps plan is enthusiastic at Saturday's gathering.

(4) Communications media, involving seminars, speakers and a newspaper.

(5) Student aid union, to give advice on draft counseling, job placement, -- and to set up a credit union and "action line" for anyone with financial or other problems.

White is backed up by steering committee of six others who are interested in forming the youth corps.

White is a graduate of Royal City-Country School in Bloomfield Hills and will be a freshman at Kalamazoo College in Fall.

How to give your home a Mediterranean view... Camino Real by Thomasville

Here's furniture with a look you might find in a seaside villa or high in the mountains of Spain. It's an important look enhanced by lavish carving and bold block motifs. Notice the beautifully turned spindles of the bed and the imaginative use of spindles inset at each end of the dining table. Such attention to crafting and detail is typical of Thomasville. And their Camino Real collection is Mediterranean design at its purest and best. The pecan veneers and solids are finished in dramatic Burnished Clove or a subtle Sherry tone. Make a special trip to see Camino Real. It's a marvelous view!
