

CARAVAN OF QUEENS -- Riding in the queen's caravan from the Elks Temple to the downtown center are (from left) Robin Speldt, Miss Farmington Elks; Queen Kathy Stock, Miss Town & Country Dodge, and Donna Bush, Miss Alexander Hamilton.

BEAUTY MIXES -- Beauty mixers with politics as Kathy Stock, Miss Founders Festival, chats with Governor William Miliken and Mayor Wilbur Brotherton in the Masonic Temple before Saturday's parade.

PHOTOGRAPHER'S FIELD DAY -- Photographer Ralph Evert has a field day as he aims flash, gun and camera at Queen Kathy Stock as she receives her crown from last year's festival queen, Dee Anderson.

SUCKER SALE -- Sherr Greenan of Farmington buys a candy sucker from Gary Geba, the DeMolay sucker salesman. "Help keep suckers from becoming extinct" was the vendor's cry.

CORN LOVER -- Kimm Staneck of Inkster visited the Farmington Founders Festival with his cousin Mike Staneck and enjoyed corn on the cob so much it was coming out of his ears. (Photo by Fran Evert)

SPONSOR'S DELIGHT -- Russ Gilbert of Town & Country Dodge shows delight that his firm's sponsor, Kathy Stock, was the winner in the 1969 festival queen competition.

Judged Best In Show

Dog Wags To First Place

BOY AND FRIEND -- It's hard to say if Eric Bohn's dog, "Muffet" is of German extraction but Eric must be judging by what he wore to the Founders Festival pet show.

STATELY -- "Henry" the duck maintains his dignity while his owner, Frederick Morrison, looks anxious about Henry's chances at the Founders Festival pet show.

CUDDLEY -- Edna Beebe's bunny snuggles up to her as it gets ready to compete as best-dressed pet.

SLINKY -- Steve Hartom holds his iguana, which took first place for "most unusual pet" at the Founders Festival pet show.

FARMINGTON
Man's best friend -- a dog -- barked off with all the honors as best pet in show at the Founders Festival Pet Show.

A dog named "Kayak" of unidentified breed, owned by Donna Guyn, won the top honor.

10 Enroll At CMU

FARMINGTON
Ten Farmington residents who have enrolled as freshmen at Central Michigan University recently participated in pre-registration and orientation periods on the CMU Campus.

They include Elizabeth Coffman of 32811 Hearststone, Warren Durham of 32116 Red Clover, Catherine Kennedy of 29329 Castleridge, Katherine Kelley of 23000 Manning, Karen Kirby of 24522 Wisteria, Kerry McDavitt of 28701 Aranal, Darcy McGuire of 30150 Westgate, Vicki Saliba of 21912 Old Franklin, Cheryl Walker of 34241 Brittany and Linda Weiss of 29749 Highmesadow.

Oddo Helps Viets

FARMINGTON
Petty Officer Frank C. Oddo, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oddo of 26142 Steele, Farmington, is serving with Naval Mobile Construction Battalion Ten. The battalion recently returned to its homeport of Fort Huachuca, Calif., after serving its fourth deployment to Vietnam.

Donations of clothing, building materials and scholarship funds were distributed to needy Vietnamese families and students through the Civic Action Program in which the battalion was active.

DeMolays Attend

FARMINGTON
Michael W. Legg of 21504 Whittington, Farmington, his father and Charles Harwell also of Farmington attended the recent International DeMolay Conference in Kansas City.

Besides man's best friend in all shapes and sizes, there were 73 animals entered in the show by 63 contestants -- four-footed friends, feline friends, crawly friends, furry friends, feathered friends, scaly friends, the variety was endless.

THE WINNERS included: Best Groomed Pet (boys) first -- Chris Cleborne, collie and German shepherd "Hinker"; second -- Greg Ayotte, beagle "Cute"; third -- Paul Eveleth, dog "Solo"; Best Groomed Pet (girls) first -- Donna Guyn, dog "Kayak"; second -- Mary Altmayer, husky "Leesa"; third -- Linda Pound, collie "Lad"; Most Unusual Pet first -- Steve Hartom, iguana "Zak"; second -- Bob Finnell, alligator "Albert"; third -- Frederick Morrison, duck "Henry"; Shaggyest Pet first -- Bob Lynn and Gail Hubrecht, cockapoo "Papa"; second -- Karen Anderson, guinea pig "Rag Mop"; third -- Karen Schroll, poodle and sheep dog "Cinder."

SPONSOR of the show was the Plaza Merchant's Association. The event was MC'd by John Bailey, chairman of the board, Farmington Area Jaycees.

Judges were Barb Benya, executive secretary, Farmington Board of Commerce; John Dhan, Farmington city manager; and Ron Holland, coach, North Farmington High School and Farmington's 1969 Young Man of the Year.

First place winners received $5 gift certificates redeemable at any plaza merchant; second place $3 certificates; third place $1 certificates.

BEST DRESSED Pet and Owner first -- Susan Semposki, rabbit "Jippy"; second -- Dona Schuetler, Siberian husky "Black Bandit"; third -- Frederick Morrison, duck "Henry"; Helen Hughes, chihuahua "Honey"; Pet with Longest Ears Cynthia Calhoun, rabbit "Honeybun."

BEST TRAINED Pet first -- Gail Jackson, collie and shepherd "Boots"; second -- Lynn Striewski, dalmatian "Brancusi"; third -- Kathy Anderson, sheltie "Prince"; Largest Pet Laura Morgan, shepherd "Bucky" and Oldest Pet Diane Fleming, beagle "Danny."

FATTEST Pet first -- Vicki Vanerberg, dachshund "Gretchen"; second -- Diane Fleming, beagle "Jill"; third -- Diane Found, cat "Miss"; Smallest Pet -- first -- Denise Sapp, tree toad "Hopple"; second -- Wava Anne Hickox, turtle "Tim Turtle"; third -- Keith Anderson, turtle "Tommy."

TENDER, LOVIN' CARE -- Rick Giles spruces up his basset hound for the Founders Festival pet show's "best groomed pet" competition.