(1) Medial—"Increased in wisdom."
(2) Physical—"Sisture."
(3) Spiritual—"Favor with God and man."

II. Growth in Grace (II Peter 1:8-11).

This is not growth into grace, but growth is it. We get into grace by the new birth. This new nature which is severe in God, must be the severe of God, and the severe of God, and the severe of God of God, and the twe may have assorting are lines of growth:

1. "Virtue here incans energy or courses." This is not "naded" as in the Authorized Verston, but as in the Revised Version which reads: "In your faith supply virtue." It means increase by growth, not you growth in the result of the growth in the revised Version which reads: "In your faith supply virtue." It means increase by growth, not by external junction. Faith its the root from which spiring all these excellencies.

2. "Englwiedge" (v. 5).

This means a right understanding, a practical knowledge.

3. "Engerance" (v. 5).

This well crients to all the affairs of life. Fractical knowledge will supply to itself the government of all supplied crients to all the affairs of life. Fractical knowledge will supply to itself the government of all the growth of the ville of God. This is a part of the ville of God. This is a part of the ville of God. A THEORY.

Cook—I wonder it Adam had my regrets when he left the Garden of Eden?
Hook—It's a safe bet he didn't if he kried to raise his own vegetables.

Truth and Suspicion.

A blessing is the truth direct.

Most ills that we endure
Arise from things that we suspect
But do not know for sure.

"Do you think government wages should be larget?"
"I do," replied Senator Sorshum. "And it's a pretty unsellish attitude on my part. I can remember when folks used to stain In line asking my indu-ence for government jobs till I liardly got a chance to attend to anything else."

Helped Some.

"I see," said the father, putting down the paper, "that Signor Mazzan-tind, the Spanish buil-lighter, has killed 3,500 animals in the arean with a single sword," "Well, say, pop!" exclaimed the fam IJ phopfell, "he's certainly helped to fill up-the cold-storage plants, hasn't he?"

What She Objected To. what she Ubjected To.
Phirson—Cheer up, sister; your husband is now in heaven.
Widow (sobbing)—Yes, and so is his first wife, whom he fairly idolized.

The Idea.

"We must give until it hurts."

"I think I get the Idea. We must cat so though we were giving money to our own wives."

REASONS ENOUGH.
