An Endorsement of Truman H. Newberry for United States Senator from Men Prominently Identified with the Agricultural Interests of Michigan

BELIEVING as we do that Michigan should elect this fall a United States Senator who is, and has been, interested in and conversant with public affairs; a man of sound judgment, and continuity of purpose; a man whose one hundred per cent patriotism cannot be questioned; and a man who has given sufficient study and thought to the matter of national and international policies to enable him to determine for himself where he stands and what he stands for; and believing that Truman H. Newberry, of Detroit, conforms to this standard, we endorse his candidacy and agree to support him at the primaries and at the election.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES

Newspaper Items Taken From Other Papers in and About the County.

Since the sugar regulations really began to regulate, the grocery store keeper is convinced that he is a man of considerable importance to the government.—Oxford Leader.

The barn of John F. Parish in White Lake township was struck by lightning Sunday afternoon and burned with all its contents of hay, grain and tools, the only exception being buggies and binder. The loss is but partially covered by insurance.—Milford Times.

One of our candidates for county office happened to pass a war garden the other day and seeing a lady there he bowed and spoke. Receiving no reply he looked a little closer and discovered that he was addressing a "scarecrow." He says the scarecrow was wearing good deal better clothes this season than they have in a long time.—Rochester Clarion.

If the proposed raise to 24 cents a mile on the D. U. R. suburban lines goes through, the fare from Northville to Detroit and return would be in the neighborhood of a dollar and a quarter, which makes it very doubtful if the inevitable decrease in passenger traffic would leave the net profits for the company any higher than at present. Possibly, however, our local merchants would benefit considerably. It certainly would not pay people to go to Detroit for anything they could get here—and it doesn't now, in many instances, if close tabs were kept on expenses.—Northville Record.

The "zone system" of postage for second class mail matter, which went into effect July 1st, is proving very unpopular with publishers. The magazines are hit the worse but even the country publishers are called upon to pay much higher rates. In the case of The Argus the rate of postage is increased about 50 per cent. And yet the government expects the newspapers to donate thousands and thousands of dollars of space every time there is a liberty loan drive, or any other kind of a drive for that matter. The newspapers come across, too, as a patriotic duty.—Brighton Argus.

PREMIER ATTRACTIONS ON STATE FAIR MIDWAY

Government Sanction of Clean Amusement As A War Measure Causes Fair to Increase Expenditures.

One of the essentials of war times—good, clean, wholesome amusement. The United States government has set its official stamp of approval on meritorious carnival and street organs in recognition of their great and important contribution to the war effort. Secretary of War Woodrow Wilson, issued a special message endorsing good, clean and moral entertainments. Secretary McAdoo, director general of railroads, endorsed amusements when he issued orders to furnish special trains and train crews to transport these organizations about the country.

High officials of the National Council of Defense have gone on record as favoring all proper amusement, for their psychological effect on the people. Mothers, sweethearts, wives and sisters of the boys "Over There" need recreation of all sorts to divert their attention from the horrors of war and alleviate the mental strain consistent with the daily casualty lists issued by the government.

Acting upon this premise, G. W. Dickinson, Secretary Manager of the Michigan State Fair, has given his personal attention to arranging the Midway and other attractions at the coming exposition.

In securing the fireworks he has been zealous. From the opening night of the 1918 fair, in Detroit on August 30 to the closing night on September 8, the greatest pyrotechnic display ever presented in Michigan will be shown. Daylight fireworks will be staged every afternoon during the ten days and an especially spectacular display will be given every evening.

We have sold a number of State Fair tickets already. Get yours before they are all gone.

Stanley C. Rogers

Register of Deeds

Primaries August 27, 1918

How Stanley C. Rogers, Candidate for Register of Deeds, is Regarded by Those Who Know Him

Auditors who Audited the Books in the Office of the County Road Commissioners, Published in the Pontiac Press-Gazette:

In referring to this co-operation the auditors Hulseapple & Parks, of Grand Rapids, said: "We would not fulfill our duty in this reporting if we failed to bring to your attention the high standard of efficiency in your accounting department. Notwithstanding the inadequacy of the system of record we enabled to trace all expenditures to their proper source and to discover all matter of initial record. This has been accomplished through the initiative of Stanley C. Rogers, acting clerk of your honorable board, who, in our estimation, has conducted the affairs of your office in a most businesslike manner. He is deserving of unstinted credit for maintaining those executive qualities which are essential for a full comprehension of the significance of your operations while embued with the entire execution of voluminous detail."

Oxford Leader:

"Stanley C. Rogers, who for the past eight years has served the people of this county so efficiently as deputy county clerk, this week filed his petitions for the nomination for the office of Register of Deeds on the Republican ticket. Mr. Rogers is a young man who is known throughout the entire county for his courteous and capable services in an official capacity, and during his tenure of office as a deputy clerk has won the confidence, respect and esteem of all who had any business to transact in the court house at Pontiac."

"If earnest, conscientious service counts, Mr. Rogers is entitled to promotion to a more responsible position, and the Republicans of Oakland can make no mistake in nominating him for any office to which he may aspire. "Certainly as a candidate for Register of Deeds his qualifications are ideal and his large acquaintance in the county make his candidacy as strong a one as the Republicans of Oakland county could choose."

Holly Herald:

"Another man who is particularly qualified for the office which he seeks is Stanley C. Rogers, who has been deputy county clerk for a number of years, and who now is a candidate for Register of Deeds. His experience in the clerk's office has given him a good insight into the public service, and he should make a good register. He is painstaking, careful and obliging and has a large number of friends in this corner of the county who will do their best to bring about his nomination and election."

Farmington Enterprise

"Stanley C. Rogers, for a number of years Deputy County Clerk, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors and Clerk of the Board of County Road Commissioners, has announced his candidacy on the Republican ticket for the nomination for the office of Register of Deeds."

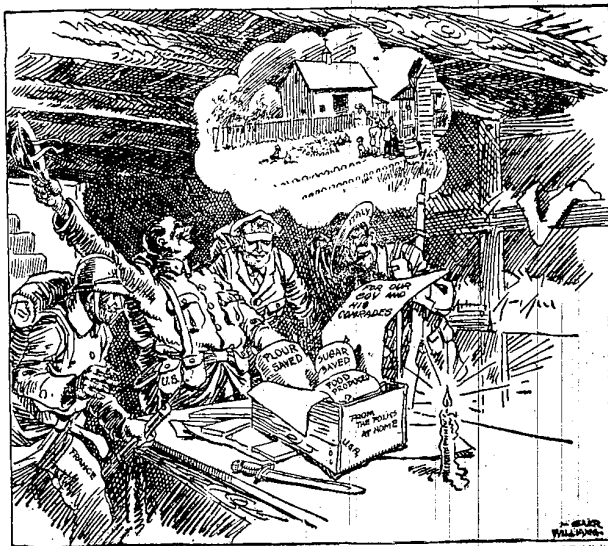

"Mr. Rogers is a young man whose reputation is unquestionable and who was highly commended on the condition of his books and accounts for the road commission at the recent auditing of same, the Auditors reporting them in 'perfect condition.'"

Holly Advertiser

"Stanley C. Rogers, who has been deputy county clerk for several years, has entered the race for the Republican nomination for Register of Deeds at the primary August 27. Mr. Rogers has made a very efficient deputy county clerk, and would make an excellent register of deeds. He is widely and favorably known throughout the county, and will make a strong run."

The supply of kerosene will run short next winter, and the government is urging every user to do his part toward making every gallon to do full war duty by giving forth its full measure of light and heat. Saving can be accomplished, it is said, only if care is given lamps, lanterns, heaters and stoves.
