FARMINGTON, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1918.

Have Pleasant Memories

West Branch, Michigan,
October 20, 1918.
Mr. W. E. Lord,
Farmington, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Lord:—
I was deeply interested in the account of the peace (2) celebration held in Farmington on a recent Saturday evening. When peace is really declared the celebration will be one of the unforgettable events of our lives.

We are almost settled in our new home, and when we are better acquainted we shall enjoy it very much.

We shall not soon forget Farmington and often times we shall recall the pleasant memories of our two years' pastorate and the many lasting friendships we formed while there.

Since we came here the weather has been ideal. We had our first churchless Sunday yesterday, and I for one, hope there will not be many more such like it. It was the strangest and most lonesome Sunday I have spent in years.

With kindest regards to all our Farmington friends, I am,
Sincerely yours,
James S. Priestley.

Red Cross

The local Red Cross will have a sufficient number of containers for Christmas packages for the boys overseas. All packages must be in uniform containers, and none but nearest of kin will be permitted to send Christmas packages overseas.

In a letter dated September 30th, Mrs. F. M. Warner received the following from the Michigan Hospital School, located near Farmington Junction: "To the People of Farmington:—We write to thank you for your very welcome gift of fruit for use at our home, and also to express our appreciation of your sympathy with our work. It is very gratifying to us to know that the people who come in contact with the work which we are trying to do for these little crippled children are so ready to assist in any way in which they can. Many of them are 'good neighbors' to us, in the old-fashioned sense of the phrase. We hope you will visit the school often, for we know you must be interested in many of our children."

Sunday School News

Anticipating that the present epidemic will be under control by November 3rd, the County Sunday School association has plans well under way for a series of one-day-to-a-town conference—institutes under the general direction of Fred Washburn, of Benton Harbor, state rural and field Sunday school secretary.

The one week schedule is as follows: Sunday afternoon, November 3rd, (Opening Day), Pontiac; Monday afternoon and evening, November 4th, Holly; Tuesday afternoon and evening, November 5th, Highland; Wednesday afternoon, November 6th, Farmington; Thursday afternoon and evening, November 7th, Oxford; Friday morning, afternoon and evening, November 8th, Birmingham.

Sugar Twice a Month

Under the latest sugar sale ruling the Food Administration now allows Michigan grocers to sell to housewives and other consumers in two sales their monthly allotment of two pounds of sugar per person per household; that is, the housewife may purchase anytime between the first and the fifteenth of the month, one-half her legal monthly allowance of sugar and again any time between the sixteenth and the thirtieth of the month may purchase the balance of the family's monthly ration. This rule supersedes the old two and five pound sales rule and the subsequent week's supply sales rule, to whom the item of labor, in weighing and rapping, has in the aggregate been very considerable.

Moreover, canning sugar can be purchased, and it is estimated that the new ruling will represent a saving of 200,000,000 pounds yearly.

Try a liner. It will pay you.

Young Life Taken

Miss Coral Shoebridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shoebridge, died at her home in this village Wednesday, October 23, 1918, of pneumonia resulting from an attack of influenza contracted in Detroit, where she had only recently secured a position, and was ill just a week.

Coral Shoebridge was born in Vickeryville on December 14, 1895, and came to this village from South Lyons where her parents about two years ago, where she attended high school and was the only graduate last June.

Miss Shoebridge underwent an operation for appendicitis early last summer, and was seriously ill at that time, and not having recovered her strength was easily susceptible to the disease which caused her death.

Besides her father and mother she leaves to mourn her early death one sister, Mrs. Ethel Kelley, of this village, and two half sisters, Mrs. Oliver Leonard, of Highland, and Mrs. Ruby Harris, of Detroit, and many sorrowing friends among the young people of the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoebridge are accorded the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their great sorrow.

The funeral will be held this (Friday) afternoon at the parental home, and burial will be made at South Lyons.

One of the busiest places in town these days is the elder mill. Everybody apparently is out of vinegar. One man was so truthful as to say, "A fellow can't get anything else to drink now, so he just has to put in some cider." Northville Argus.

We still contend, however, that we had a heluva good time Saturday night last, celebrating the peace news, even if we were a trifle previous, and when the good news does actually come, and the slow towns, like Detroit and Royal Oak, are tearing things apart, we can sit on the fence and spit and say, "old stuf, boys."
