Quite a trousseau for the young fellow wedded to the sea. Once he must unpack his sea bag;

My Word

A by-product of the world war in England has been an enormous demand for baseball paraphernalia and other English articles. The United States has been unable to supply the bats, gloves, masks, etc., urgently called for by the American and Canadian players stationed in the British Isles and by France.

A military train with supplies for the allied armies, from Siberia, arriving in Manchuria. The photograph shows American soldiers in front with soldiers of all the allies.

View of the harbor of Durazzo, Albania, which was entered by a main force of the allies, the Austrian navy, and the Italian fleet, all enemy vessels sunk.

The poodle only set up a loud series of yelps and when Rock passed by the crate the poodle stuck its head out between the slats and nipped him on the ankle.

Before calling the dog Kaiser Rock said it licked his hand and was very friendly.—Detroit Free Press.
