LEMUEL ANDERSON WALKER ago last September, and in January, 1918, to France, where he had been in service until the time of his death as above.
Lemuel Walker was born in Riley township. St. Clair county, on March 13, 1894, and was the third child of Samuel J. and Rebecca Walker, who together with four sisters, Mrs. Fred Lee, Mrs.
Maurise Seaboldt, of Redford, Mrs. Henry Hills, of Northville, Miss Marguerite, at home; and one brother Clayton, of Northville, survive him.
Mr. Walker, made an attempt to enlist soon after war was declared, but was rejected on account of internal rupture. He was, however, accepted when the draft was called, having made no claim for exemption, iss he had often declared it to be the "dream of his life" to be a soldier and fight for his country, is number of his letters after going overseas being bright and cheery, showing that he was "in his element" and enjoying the life.
With his parents Mr. Walker came to Farmington in 1907, moving to Clarenceville in 1916, and was a well known young man of this vicinity, where the regret of his friends, together with great sympathy for the famlly is apparent, their consolation being that he was one of the heros who gave his "all" for his country and friends.

Arrangements are being made for public memorial services in his memory, announcement of which will be made next week.

The spirit of violence asserted itself here Thursday night and a Main street business place was bedecked with red and yellow paint and flaring accusations. When the influenza epidemic was at its height in the state, Milford was practically free from that disease except now and then a case in the country. It has been getting more of a foothold within the last two weeks however and while reports are doubtless much exaggerated as to its prevalence, the Council on Monday deemed it a wise precaution to again put the ban on the school, church, movie, pool rooms, and public gatherings of any kind.—Milford Times. poor rooms, and public gather ings of any kind.—Milford Times.

Everybody had a stiff neck last Saturday watching the daredevil stunts of a half dozen birdmen flying over the village. They whirled, dived, dipped, looped the loop, came close to the tree tops and threw kisses to the girls on the street. First we know they'll swoop down and carry some of 'em off just like a hawk in a barnyard and listen girls—in their haste it will be impossible for them to distinguish between chickens and old hens, so there's a chance for all of us.—Birmingham Eccentric.
