Max Dawey group to hold auditions

Concert Series Inc., official name of the Max Dawey Singers and Orchestra, announces auditions for persons interested in joining the 43-voice chorus.

Auditions are open to anyone 18 or older who can read music.

"We're not necessarily looking for people with trained voices. We need singers who can blend and hold their part in eight-part harmony," said Max Dawey, chorus director.

Anyone interested should contact Concert Series at 478-8776.

The singers present two formal concerts a year: one in the spring and one at Christmas. Concerts usually are in Ford Auditorium with a well-known guest. The Christmas show last year featured puppeteer Shari Lewis.
