Bike group aims to fight thieves

Bike thieves will have to be on guard if they try to sell a bike registered with the newly formed Worldwide Cycling Association, announced a spokesman of the group.

Roger Labus claimed that any WWCA bike can be easily traced by any law enforcement agency back to its rightful owner, no matter what city or state it was stolen from.

If thieves try to sell a WWCA bike, the customer can call the police and claim a reward. The organization offers a $200 cash reward plus a bonus for assistance in returning a WWCA bike.

He claimed that bikes from his organization would never be sold at local police auctions.

Further details about the group may be obtained by writing Labus, P.O. Box 387, Clarkson, Mich. 48016.

Honorary member

Bloomfield Hills Councilman Joseph Daek became an honorary member of the St. Mary College class of '76 after giving the main speech at a banquet honoring the senior class of the liberal arts college in West Bloomfield. Daek, former mayor of Bloomfield Hills, owner of Daek Products, Inc. in Troy, and a member of the Orchard Lake Schools board of regents, received a plaque from the Very Rev. Walter J. Ziemba, St. Mary College president, while Mrs. Daek looked on.

Quilt contest announced

An estimated 35,000 are expected to attend the National Bicentennial Quilt Exposition and Contest, officially recognized by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration.

The Women's Association of Macomb County Community College and the Warren Historical Commission will sponsor the 18-day event from July 24 through Aug. 8. The Exposition will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. at the field house of the Twelve Mile Campus of Macomb County Community College, 15400 Twelve Mile Warren.

Two thousand quilts will be entered and may be purchased, with prizes to be awarded by a panel of five judges, including Robert Bishop of Henry Ford Museum and Eva Boscourt of Gale's deli-cat of Birmingham.

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies will begin at 10 a.m. July 24 to be presided over by retired Congresswoman Martha W. Griffiths. For quilt entry forms, write to Quilts, P.O. Box 225, Warren, Mich. 48090 and include a self-addressed, stamped, legal size envelope.
