

Treasures galore at antique mart

The Plymouth Symphony League's antique mart has earned the reputation of being the best little show in the state since its inception 14 years ago.

Compared to the giant shows involving hundreds of dealers, the Plymouth show is a little gem.

Lack of space limited dealer booth space so the league decided to make up in quality for its lack of quantity.

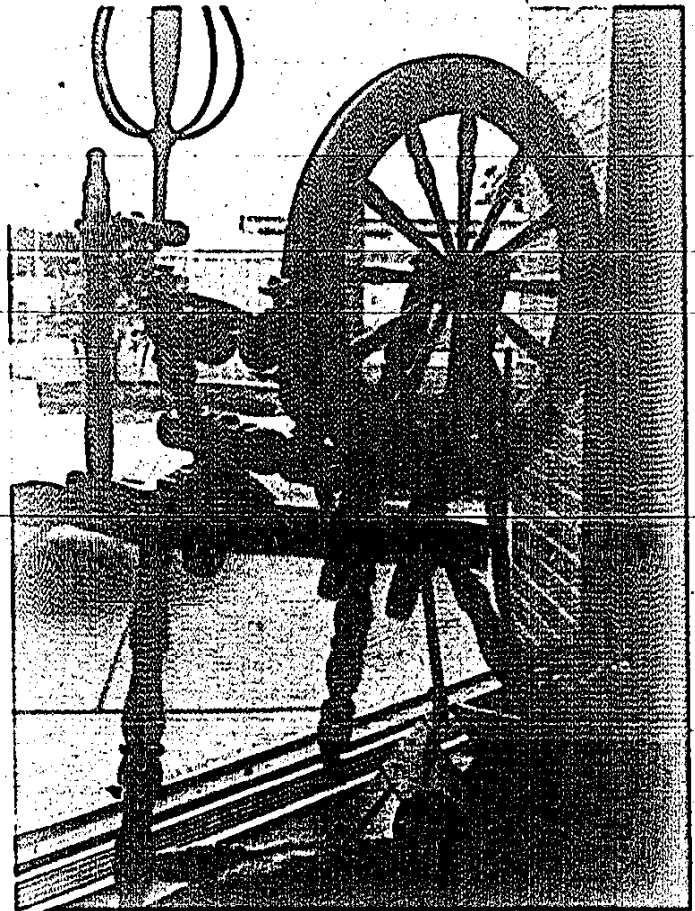

Joyce Kelly (left) and Dorothy Dean are co-chairpersons of the antique mart this year. (Photo by Keven Miller)

Over the years two dealer chairmen have screened applicants. The result has been a complete range of antiques that is not repetitious.

This year 22 dealers from four states will be on hand for the three-day show which opens in the Plymouth Cultural Center, Friday, Sept. 10 at noon. (Check map in centerfold of this special festival issue for location) The mart hours are noon until 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and noon to 7 p.m. on Sunday.

Exhibitors include Village Antiques, Charles and Mary Kehoe, and Richard Wells of Plymouth; Marjorie Kullifay, Gloria Siegert and Ruth Heilman of Livonia; Seraphia Moore of Westland; Oriental Antiques of Ann Arbor; The Red Sled of Union Lake; Viola Borgert of Taylor; Stratford House of Piqua, Ohio; Pandora's Box of West Bloomfield; Country Cousin Antiques of Garrett, Ind.; Pauline Work of Farmington Hills; Dobson's Antiques of Pittsburg, Pa.; Iron Eagle Antiques of Redford Township; Helen Tallman of Detroit; McFarlane Country Corners and Spencer Antiques of Ypsilanti; Mrs. John Teith of Northville; and Leroy Darwin of Grass Lake.

Proceeds of the show support the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra. Admission is $1.

SALE SAVE SALE SAVE SALE SAVE SALE SAVE SALE SAVE

76 Sale

We're cleaning out all our '76 models—over 100 cars to choose from

See our Special closeout Incentives on Granadas, Pintos & Mavericks

Register Now
Thru Sept. 10th
Ages 8-13

Complete line of trucks & vans

LEO GALHOUN
"Where customers bring their friends"
41001 PLYMOUTH ED. PLYMOUTH • 453-1100

Monroe Filter Plus

No oil filter in the world does as much for your car as filter plus

MONROE

The Monroe Filter Plus is a...
...like any other premium filter...
...chemical additives as...
...working life...

The best oil filter in the world.

Linwood
AUTOMOTIVE PARTS

42331 Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth
455-7800
2919 Joy Road, Detroit
838-2980