Costume judging Sunday

The festival's annual costume contest will be sponsored this year by the American Association of University Women. Judging will be from 1:15-2:15 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 12, behind the bandstand in Kellogg Park. First, second and third place cash prizes will be awarded, with winners announced from the bandstand at 3 p.m. Authentic costumes or a good reproduction are required from the period covering 1776 to 1915. Costumes must be complete in detail except for footwear. Categories include: Family, two or more related persons; children up to 14 years; and adult, age 15 or older. Authentic costumes and reproductions will be judged separately. Sue Bunch is chairperson of the event and Janet Repp will be fashion commentator, describing the costumes and the era, when the prizes are awarded.
