

Thawley.
on style...

The real distinction in tailored attire is in the fit.
It's easy, natural. It wears well.
It's a discriminating factor with the emphasis on quality and detail.
The cut is right and it complements the gesture.
My collection expresses a positive, confident direction.
A reflection of the man, and his energy.
It mirrors the way he lives and says a lot about him.
Style. There's no doubt about it.
