

In The Pocket

Well, it happened sooner than expected. With the regular bowling season only one week old, we have had the first 300 of the campaign and it came from a very unexpected source.

Bowling in the Men's Saturday Night League at Red Fox Lanes, Rock Island, who carries a 135 average, picked up the 300 strike in a row and had the spectacular 10-0 series until the last pin fell.

He was coming strong into the tenth frame. Then, on a last ball, he hit the 6-pin wicket. There was a slight catch through the house when the pin didn't fall. Nick had no trouble taking up a 900 series with games of 300, 300, 300 and 300.

Last season, there were 41 perfect games bowled, but none of them this early in the season.

WHEN IT COMES TO THRILLS, Ebel knows better than just his pet mouse.

Gymnastics class offered

The Clarenceville School District will offer an instructional gymnastic program again this year, as it did last year. The program is designed to provide instruction in gymnastics to youngsters six years of age and older.

Courses will be offered in beginning tumbling, advanced beginning tumbling, intermediate tumbling, advanced tumbling, apparatus and team line. All of the classes are taught by qualified instructors. Also all of the classes will be held on a first come, first served basis.

Other high-scorers behind these leaders were Bill Montgomery Jr. with 235 and Brad Laskey with 213.

THE TEEN CLASSIC at Farmington Lanes got off to a great start scoring what may stand up for a long time this season. Al Bohne paced the boys with a 240 in a 5th game and Jim Hamlin was right behind with a 240 in 6th.

THE SENIOR CITIZENS are giving the younger bowlers something to think about at Plymouth Bowl.

This week it was John Waderski, who showed the way with a 220 in 231 and Nick Lopez was right behind with a 213 game.

IN THE MEN'S League at Plaza Lanes, top honors went to Pete Herman on opening night when he posted a 220 in 267. This promises some stiff competition over the rest of the way.

ONE OF THE VETERANS came through to pace the Westland Classic in its inaugural.

He was Lou Iwonek, who rolled games of 267 and 208 in 647 and beat out Dick Beattie, who had a 210 in 629. Another share of the honors went to J.M. Waderski, who had a 253 in 613.

One of the prodigies of the women bowlers this week at Westland is Jo Anne Caputo. A girl who rolls only once each week and never practices. She started her season with a 220 in 522.

In the Early Birds League, it was Myra showing the way with a 212 game and Bev Miller making high series with a 479.

LOIS MERRIMAN of Plymouth one of the leaders in past seasons, was up to her 13 in the Luvina Lanes Ladies Classic when she topped the opening day with 244-319 that included a high single of 210-15-253.

Other single game winners were Pat Combe with 178-217 and Candice Nesferkepp with 176-234-214.

Racquetball tourney set this weekend

Starting Friday night and running all weekend, the Luvina Racquetball Club will be holding the largest racquetball tournament of its kind for amateurs in the metro area.

The tournaments will start at 6 p.m. and run till midnight. On Saturday and Sunday, play will begin at 9 a.m. and last through the day until 9 and 4 p.m. respectively. Spectators may watch the matches free of charge on any of the three days.

More than 160 contestants will participate and awards will be presented to the top four finishers in each class. The contestants will be coming from all over the metro area and will play on a continuous basis in the two-game knockout.
