art buffs choose

the ultimate condominium

An accomplished artist, Mr. Mildred Kinghorn's condominium not only overlooks a picturesque reflecting pool... but provides a perfect setting for picture, canvas and brush! She and Mr. Kinghorn (who is an engineer with Ford Motor Company) chose Pebble Creek because of its excellent location... the beauty of their Casa Diamante... the superb architecture and landscaped grounds of this park community and the security of a manned gatehouse entrance! From $77,900

Fashions shown

Pioneer Women who are selecting clothes in the Classic Kollection Shop are (from left) Lillian Shapiro, Roslyn Stern and Rachel Berent. The clothes will be shown at the annual paid-up membership drive of the Detroit council of the international organization in Labor Zionist Institute in Farmington Hills. Date is Oct. 21 for the event which includes an international dessert tea with the fashion showing.

LWV launches fund campaign

The annual Finance drive of the West Bloomfield Farmington Area League of Women Voters will begin Friday.

Sandra Schwartz and Diane Davis will co-chair the drive. Financial advisors include Neve Barnato, editor of the Farmington Observer, Mary Lou Callaway, reporter for the West Bloomfield Executive, Town T. Cohn, James Gruschel, the Bruce Miller, Bruce W. Robinson, Dr. Murray B. Ross and Albi Vaynsen.

The advisory committee represents a varied base for the Farmington Farmington Hills and West Bloomfield area. Letters requesting contributions have already been sent and will be followed up by personal contact from League members.

Howard T. Keating Associates Inc., Realtors, 19 W. Long Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills, is leasing the League house of their offices for the campaign.

League members will be making calls the evening of Oct. 20.

The three members of the West Bloomfield Farmington Area League to the community are financed through the support of our contributors, members, dues, Farmington Hills and Town sales, LWV calendars and our WAVE Tee Shirts, said Mrs. Schwartz.

The success of our future programs and services are dependent on the success of our Finance drive.

The League is an important non-profit organization formed to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of its residents in government at all levels.

In the past year the local group has sponsored the candidates races for the Board of Education, West Bloomfield Township primary election, Farmington Hills City Council, Farmington City Council and
