

Bona stands out in Falcon win

By TOM BAER

In the average football statistics summary of Farmington High's 17-6 victory over Pontiac Northern last Friday, Martin Bona's name would appear just once — for the touchdown pass he caught in the third quarter.

But Bona, a 160-pound halfback, was elected to the yearbook to just about anyone who watched the Falcons lift their overall record to 24 and end their Inter Lakes League season at 12.

Offensively, Bona led the winners in rushing with 83 yards in 11 carries, most of which were picked off by Northern's Howard Dill from quarterback Randy Meier. Defensively, Bona picked off three Northern passes. In the seven games this season he's intercepted seven passes — a season record for Farmington.

He's even been in the lead at quarterbacking the team late in the game and led a drive to the Huskie 12-yard line before the final buzzer sounded.

He's one heck of a halfback," said Farmington coach Hal Beardley. "He could be a good player if he burns out as a fullback."

He was undoubtedly the star of the fall game, said Farmington assistant coach Dave Catherman as he looked over the stats after the game. And Farmington's statistics looked good.

Northern took a brief lead when Brad Allen scored on a four-yard run in the second quarter. Northern tried a pass for the extra point, but the play was broken up.

Doug Beck, a junior end, recovered a Northern fumble on the Huskie 25 to set up the Falcons next TD, the pass to Bona.

Bona helped keep the scoring drive alive by catching a 23-yard pass from Meier to the Northern 10 after a fourth-down and eight situation.

Farmington's defense limited Northern to 10 yards rushing and 91 more through the air on seven completions in 11 attempts. Linchuker, Rob Patrick helped the defense by making eight solo tackles to record a fumble and intercepting a pass.

Both teams had trouble holding on to the ball. Northern fumbled five times and lost four of them. Farmington fumbled four times and lost three.

The loss dropped coach Dave Schmidt's Puritan Northern team to 14 overall and 21 in the ILL.

Farmington plays its last home game Saturday, Nov. 11, against three-time beaten对手 with the game begins at 3 p.m. on the following Saturday, Nov. 18, Farmington opens its season with a game at its traditional North Farmington.
