Our Indian Summers are filled with good times from the good old days.

Now's the time to stroll to stately homes and cozy shops at Greenfield Village, where America's past is back as autumn leaves.

It's quiet, untrashed, now. And although summer's over, our antique train still puts its way to Suwanee Park, where the magic of the penny arcade and old-time carousel awaits kids of all ages.

On weekends, our sternwheeler gracefully chugs around Suwanee Lagoon.

Friendly craftsmen are still at work down at the Crafts Center. Should the weather turn, Henry Ford Museum is just next door, where you'll enjoy endless galleries of memorabilia—plus the special Bicentennial exhibition, "The Struggle and The Glory."

There's something for the whole family to see and do.

OLD TOWN INN NEWS

Since 1934 — WOODWARD AT SQUARE LAKE ROAD — BLOOMFIELD HILLS

Legitimate Beef lodged at Ted's.

Home of really Prime Ribs

That was one real piece of roast beef we had tonight, was overheard at night from a group of rather well-dressed diners at the gracious Ted's Old Town Inn restaurant.com piers in Bloomfield Hills.

"We have comments like that coming in all the time," remarked William Little, Ted's president. "And no doubt, too, because the prime ribs at Ted's are always substantially cut, prepared perfectly to order. That's a legitimate piece of beef," was heard from another guest at Ted's.

According to general manager Mac Little every dinner at Ted's includes the remarkable Gatsby salad with choice of dressing, a special loaf of dinner bread, and potato or vegetable. Mr. Little explained that only the best prime beef is purchased for use at Ted's.

A host of servers as well as Ted's regular back the Woodward Avenue restaurant company insist that Ted's is the best in every-going establishment. To great, choose the 18ers a themed dining room known as Gatsby's. There's also a stage Tuesday through Saturday evening, or the rich decor of the Pub and Parlor rooms.

Pub & Parlor and Cranbrook Coffee House offer Ted's diversity.

The handsome Pub & Parlor has its own special kind of drawing power at Ted's, as does the casual Cranbrook Coffee House. The individuals of the various rooms is what really makes Ted's unique, although the consistency in food and drink are important in general.

The usual seven nights-a-week frolicking around the piano bar has found popular acceptance among the many Ted's regulars. Judy Carroll handles the vocals.

Bookings being made in Ted's Banquet rooms.

It has been reported that private parties, corporate meetings and other gatherings are being scheduled into Ted's low-rent event rooms.

The room is the new home of the exclusive Ted's Club. Interested parties should contact Bill Little for information.
