Champion Hails From Farmington

Observerland boasts a new sports champion... a queen, no less.
She's Nancy Patch of Farmington, who captured the championship in the annual Women's District Golf tournament's five-day tournament.
Miss Patch won with comparative ease over Susan Barle of Indianapolis, 5-4, to climax a big week which started for her when she shared in medalist honors.
In beating Miss Barle, Miss Patch grabbed a two-hole lead on the outgoing nine and then won four of the first five holes on the back nine to put the result beyond question.
Golf plays just about the biggest part in Miss Patch's life these days.
She was born in Cleveland, moved with her parents to Mansfield, O. then to Columbus and back to Cleveland before the move into Farmington four years ago.
NANCY MEANTIME, finished her education at Ohio State University.
She first blossomed in golf in Cleveland where she starred in her junior and district play.
In the last year she has been concentrating and working at the sport. She spent the winter in California where she could play golf all the time and there's no question it has helped her game.

Shriners Join In Benefit

The biggest show of the baseball season will highlight the sixth annual Shrine Night at Tiger Stadium, Tuesday (Aug. 26), when the Tigers meet the Oakland Athletics in a two-and-a-half hour doubleheader starting at 5:30 p.m.
A big turnout is expected to witness the twin bill and the pagant presented by Modern Temple's colorful marching units.
Proceeds from the game will help support Shrine hospitals across the United States, Canada and Mexico. The hospitals are devoted largely to crippled children requiring orthopedic care.
"Strong legs run, so that children may walk," is again the theme of Shrine Night, according to Murray Brown, illustrious potentate of Modern Temple.

Derin Astros Battle For State F Crown

Victors in 24 of 28 games, including the F Major League championship in Livonia, the Derin Astros are in Jackson competing for the state championship of the Recreation Association of Michigan.
The Astros joined Inkster, Roseville and Jackson in the one defeat and out tournament. The luck of the draw pitted the Livonians against Inkster in the opening round with the winner facing the victor of the Roseville-Jackson contest in the championship finale.
Composed of 12 and 13 year olds, the Astros, under the direction of Coach Jim Stager and Manager Ron Nelson, won the American League division of the F Major League with a record of 19 wins and four losses.
That triumph sent the team on to the state finals with a record of 24-4 including five straight journey triumphs.

Ex-RU Catcher Promoted In Tiger System

The climb up the baseball ladder has turned into a fast one for Redford Township's Harry (Spud) Kendrick.
A few seasons ago he was catching for Redford Union High and for Redford's summer Connie Mack and Free Press League teams.
His work was so impressive that scouts and college coaches flocked around.
Kendrick decided that the best place to go was to college... so he went to Michigan State, where he became the Spartans' No. 1 catcher and on top of that was voted All Big Ten as a junior and senior.
What's more, Kendrick was named the catcher on the 1969 College All American team.
THUS, IT WAS little wonder that Kendrick's name went fast in June when the major leagues held the annual draft of college and high school players.
The Tigers wanted Kendrick desperately. They had been following him since his days at Redford Union.
Detroit scouts talked to him then... they talked to him at Michigan State.
When the Tigers plucked him, there was little clicking about salary terms.
Kendrick quickly signed and was off to Montgomery in the Southern Association. He broke in auspiciously as a pro.
Within a few weeks he was clubbing the ball at 317 pace. His work behind the plate was outstanding.
LAST WEEK the Tigers catcher at the top farm team at Toledo in the International League suffered an injury.
It was necessary to get a replacement.
Farm director Don Lund didn't have to look any farther than Montgomery... and Kendrick.
By the weekend Kendrick was catching first string for Toledo.
"He's quite a catcher," says manager Jack Tighe of Toledo, who formerly guided the Tigers.

According to an insurance company, most accidents occur during clear, dry weather.

In a contest on the problem of Highway litter, a 16-year old student in Boston suggested: Magazine Bear came so they adhere to the car when tossed out!

An oil company has developed a computer to check customer's credit card by phone in 20 seconds. Too short a time for a thief to clear out...

One out of six patents recorded in the U.S. Patent Commission are with automobiles. Most of them deal with design, accessories, repair or manufacture.

If pulling a boat trailer is your weekend thing, use a frame-type hitch which spreads the stress, rather than the axle-type hitch.
