

Unbeaten Stevenson rolls on

STEVENSON—THURSTON

Recording its third consecutive shutout in eight games this season, Stevenson last weekend obliterated Thurston in a non-league football game 34-0.

The Spartans strangled the Thunder for 34 yards in methodical winning their eighth game of the campaign with a 34-0 victory. The Eagles, who had 123 yards, suffered their eighth straight shutout.

Stevenson, as it has proved so often during the season, showed it could score on both long drives and on big plays.

Jim Spala capped the Spartans' first half on an eight-yard TD run in the opening quarter. Stevenson's offensive machine moved up 60 yards in eight plays for the score.

The Spartans' second touchdown drive mirrored their first. As Spala, in the second period, capped a six-play, 50-yard drive by bulging into the Thurston endzone from two yards out.

Later in the second quarter, Jim Dolmetsch hurried a 47-yard scoring pass to Ron Colson to top the Spartans' lead to three touchdowns.

Stevenson did not rest on the laurels of the long scoring play and continued to hunger after more points in the second period.

The Spartans, after holding the Eagles and regaining possession of the ball at their own 33-yard line, drove the 65 yards in only four plays to count their fourth touchdown of the half.

Dolmetsch hit Dave Gilland with a seven-yard pass for the score.

Stevenson capped the scoring on the first play from scrimmage in the second half when fullback Chuck DeMarco blasted through a big hole on an off-tackle play and ran 79 yards for a touchdown.

"Our offensive line blocked well," said Stevenson coach Jack Heardon, who praised the work of Mark Lokar, Craig Barton, Bill Gardner and Mike Sims.

Lokar, Ed Matasac, Spala, Steve Taylor, Mark Barton, Brian Bobily and Mike Pelletier all played outstanding defense.

Gilland set a new Stevenson school record in the contest when he ran back a Thurston kickoff 60 yards. That mark is the most recent in a long string of new standards set by the Spartans this season.

DeMarco ran for 89 of Stevenson's 166 rushing yards and Dolmetsch completed seven of nine passes for 108 yards.

Thurston, which ran 51 offensive plays—nine more than the Spartans—netted 123 yards.

Franklin tops Churchill in crosstown grid battle

Two plays spoiled the methodical last weekend in a crosstown grid battle when Franklin topped Churchill 14-0.

The Patriots scored six of their touchdowns during the second quarter as what was described as a "blowout" strategy.

The Patriots scored both TDs. He recorded a pair of touchdowns for the first and second quarters.

The Patriots' offense was machine-like, scoring six touchdowns in the first half.

The Patriots' defense was equally machine-like, scoring six touchdowns in the first half.
