Murder is being investigated

 The two suspects in the slaying were seen on Nov. 11 at 11 a.m. by a police officer. The officer, who is not named, said that he saw two men walking away from the scene. One of the men was wearing a dark jacket and the other was wearing a light-colored jacket. The officer said that he did not see the man who was killed.

The police department is currently investigating the case. They are looking for anyone who saw the two men on Nov. 11. If anyone has information, they should call the police department at 478-6440.

School closings contemplated

 The four public high buildings as middle schools. The school board is currently considering the possibility of closing the schools for a few days. This is due to the fact that the schools are not fully staffed at the moment.

New Horizons holds auction

New Horizons of Oakland County Women's Auxiliary will hold its annual 10th Annual Auction on Nov. 19 at 12:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Robert Champagne, 290 Lakeland Lane, Bloomfield Hills. The auction will feature a variety of items, including furniture, appliances, and more.

Old concept fits drugstore's space

Arnold's Drug Store in the Crowley-Kentwood Shopping Center, Twelve Mile and Farmington Road, has taken on the aura of a general store. The store recently moved to another location in the center which is more than two and one-half times larger than its former space. The 15,000-square-foot store features men's and women's apparel, linens, books, records, toys and hardware. We've taken the extra space to add a well-lit touch of the past of the modern concept of discount drug," said Arnold's President, Van Strubbe.
