

East, St. Agatha win districts

G.C.EAST—G.C.WEST

Taking control in the early going and never losing the lead, the girls basketball team from Garden City East swept over Garden City West Monday night in its district final, 56-17.

Using a half-court press to hold back any possible threat from the West offense, East went on to control the rest of the game.

"They couldn't score against it," said East coach Jan Moore, commenting on the press.

Leading scorers for East were Debbie O'Neill with 12 points and Sherr Garlow with 12 points. Also Kathy Donahoe had 11 points.

West's high scorer was Mary Beth Watkins with a total of eight points.

ST. AGATHA—ST. ANDREW

The girls basketball team from Bedford St. Agatha captured a district championship for the first time in the school's history Monday night when it knocked off Detroit St. Andrew, 51-25.

Total domination is the only word to describe the prudent Aggies gave St. Andrew. Taking a 12-0 lead in the first quarter and never losing it, the Aggies rolled on to victory.

No fancy tactics were used by St. Agatha, just a plain half-court press with a 2-2-2 and fast break.

The girls showed class," said Aggie coach Ken Markowicz who also thought that the whole team did a fine job.

Leading the Aggie attack was Cindy Kunk with 13 points, Sandy Clur with 10 points and 11 rebounds, and Terry Anthony with six points and 15 assists.

In the rebounding department Mary Motta with 10 and Louise Harrington with 11 led the team.

BENTLEY—FRANKLIN

Dominating the game in every aspect the girls basketball team from Livonia Bentley knocked off Livonia Franklin Monday, 59-24.

First half action saw both teams in a tight struggle with the Bulldogs holding a slight lead. Franklin fought and fought to keep the game from becoming a rout. But the second half turned out to be all Bentley. Controlling the backboards and the whole court, the Bulldogs smashed at the dogged Patriots.

In the last quarter of play the Bulldogs so dominated the game that the Patriots could not score a single point and wound up on the short end of the stick.

Leading the Bulldog attackers was Jennifer Nicholls with a total of 21 points. Other outstanding players for Bentley were Deborah May with eight points and Nellie Kulas with six points.

Another fine showing came from Carla Holly and Debbie Brown each scoring four points and leading the offense throughout most of the game.

Leading scorers for Franklin were Patricia Breys with 12 points and Dawn Muller with 12 points. Michele Marley got the one other Patriot point.

STEVENSON—MURRAY WRIGHT

A classic defensive struggle was the only word for Monday's girls basketball game between Livonia Stevenson and Detroit Murray Wright. Both teams pushed and shoved at each other until one team weakened and that was Stevenson. The final score was 49-40.

The first quarter of play was a battle of offense, though the score read more like a score from a football game, 11-10.

In the second quarter the Spartans came out fighting and slowly pushed Murray Wright back until the game seemed to switch hands.

But Stevenson was forced into a new situation when its offense had to turn to the last break and the long pass to break the seemingly solid Patriot defense.

In the third quarter the Patriots opened up its uneasy lead and slowly took control of the game.

But Stevenson wouldn't say die and fought hard in the third and fourth quarters. But it just wasn't enough and Murray Wright stepped away with the win.

Leading scorers for the Spartans were Lebra Derray with 14 points and Laura Burke with 10 points.

Leading the Patriot offense were Maile Hobson with 14 points and Carolyn Birden with 13 points.

Murray Wright takes on Livonia Bentley Tuesday at Livonia Stevenson High Game time in the district final is 7:30 p.m.
