

MY FRENCH CHEF WENT
SOUTH FOR THE WINTER.
SO I HIRED A REAL PARISIAN
MASTER. THE CUISINART.

Pierre can go to the back of beyond now for all I care. The Cuisinart® is a miracle worker that needs no vacation. It chops, blends, grinds, slices and purées. It performs in seconds tasks that formerly took a brace of kitchen helpers hours to do. A working piece of art on a base of cast metal with a handle on the front of the bowl, $225. With all this you'd think no attraction could be added. Wrong. Once I mail in the warranty, I get the James Beard cookbook—written especially for Cuisinart—in return. Guest and Gift Shop.
