

You'll be amazed by men's gift array

Have you ever felt as if you were wandering through a maze when you tried to select that special Christmas gift for the man in your life?

The Christmas shopper has a vast selection of men's items, which can range anywhere from modern to old-fashioned and from inexpensive to costly.

Today's young people have chosen the modern digital wrist watches as their number one choice for the man in their life. These watches reveal the time in illuminated digits and are powered by tiny energy cells. The watch never needs winding.

Wine-making kits have become popular gifts for the man who does a lot of home entertaining. They are convenient, money saving and fun for the whole family.

Jewelry is also a recommended item for the modern man. The holiday shopper can choose from a large variety of neck chains, personalized wrist bands and stylish rings.

An ideal gift for the man who relishes fond memories of our nation's past could be a set of decorative antique wall plaques. These wall hangings come in a variety of colors and shapes such as the old-fashioned Model T Ford, street cars, and old stage coaches from the west.

Pocket watches of the 1900s have recently become fashionable again. These elegant old timepieces are decorated with an engraved scene taken directly from the yellowed pages of our history books. The watch dangles from a gold or silver chain and can be easily attached to your man's pocket or belt.

Old-fashioned pot-belly ash trays also have become popular items. These ash trays are set in a brass stand and are replicas of the pot-belly stove.

Students frequently have a troublesome time picking the right gift because of today's skyrocketing prices. Many stores offer appropriate gifts at inexpensive prices. Belt buckles can be purchased in a variety of shapes and styles for under $5. These can be removed and changed to match the moods of your favorite guy.

Subscriptions to several well-read magazines can be bought for the man who likes to keep up to date with the current news articles. Some recommended magazines are Time, U.S. News, Consumer Report, Newsweek, and National Geographic.

Bar lamps are quickly becoming fast-selling gift items. Inexpensively priced, they can create great effects in lighting.
