

Christmas
made easy
...and special.

Beautiful, fun books to delight the eye, ear, mind and body.

A Musical Christmas with Peter Duchin

A beautiful book that will provide many beautiful family hours of musical pleasure. The well-known pianist Peter Duchin has arranged the most popular carols, religious, and secular songs of Christmas for easy family play on piano and guitar. Charming illustrations.

A lovely book for the most beloved season of the year.

MASTERS CAMERA STIEGLITZ STEICHEN & THEIR SUCCESSORS

Masters of the Camera

No other photography book has ever given us such a generous and telling display of the supreme camera art of these two masters: Steiglitz and Steichen. Plus a brilliant collection of their most talented successors: Ansel Adams, Paul Strand, Edward Weston, Margaret Bourke-White, Eugene Smith, Walker Evans, and Irving Penn. For yourself, or your favorite camera buff. A must!

The Making of a Dance

Come behind the scenes and watch, close-up, as a new ballet is created. The ballet, Medea, premiered in Spoleto, a smash in New York. The stars: Mikhail Baryshnikov, the greatest male dancer of his generation, and Carla Fracci, Italy's prima ballerina. Remarkably candid, intimate photographs give you a front row seat at a thrilling, and heretofore, very private occasion.
