

A proud Barney Slobin stands in front of his latest pride and joy, two brand-spanking new ambulances. At $15,000 apiece, Slobin says he always drives the maiden run. "ECNALUBMA" is backward for AMBULANCE. It's spelled that way to be readable in rearview mirrors.

This accident happened last Friday near Orchard Lake and Fourteen Mile. Greg Beauchemin and Heather Hudgens strap the victim onto the stretcher before they loaded her into the ambulance.
