Modern exterior hides old fashioned druggist

When a customer walks into Ted Olette's pharmacy, 3250 West Twelve Mile Farmington Hills, he is likely to be surprised by the modern atmosphere. It is a stark contrast to the old-fashioned exterior.

TED OLETTE

Olette wants it that way. His one of his old-fashioned pharmacies. The exterior is decorated with brown leather couches, chrome tables, large wall-to-wall carpeting, and expensive prints that he has framed.

I don't have any merchandise on my shelves. I try to have the office and the medicine while they're waiting. There are magazines that they are welcome to read.
