

Volunteers

This column describing volunteer needs in Oakland County is co-sponsored by the Junior League of Birmingham and the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau. Inquiries regarding volunteer need listed here should be made to the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau at 961-7750. Requests for volunteer listings also should be made through the volunteer bureau.

ADOPTION IDENTITY MOVEMENT OF MICHIGAN is a Hazel Park-based agency in need of volunteers with some law background to serve as legal assistants and help with preparation of personal petitions, financial assistants with accounting background to set up an accounting system and to handle tax matters, and adoption worker assistants with background in adoption and foster care work. All positions require minimal commitment, usually one evening per month.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS in Bloomfield is in need of volunteers for several positions. Hospital volunteers assist in non-professional duties and are trained by both the Red Cross and the hospital staff. Special food needs callers telephone previous food donors of specific food types to determine their willingness to donate for specific requests. Possible volunteers are advised to train and usually work near their homes.

HENRY FORD HOSPITAL in Bloomfield and Troy is in need of volunteers for general assistance. Duties may include greeting patients or answering questions. There are also opportunities for more special services such as hospital tours, assisting with and visiting sick.

2 workshops scheduled on aging

Two full-day workshops to acquaint various professions with concepts in aging will be offered during the winter term at Macomb Community College.

The workshops have been funded by The U.S. Administration on Aging. Director of Macomb County Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Teaching Geriatric Care Committee, is interested in the workshop leaders so that they can help develop positive attitudes in the community and develop a better understanding about the process of aging.

The workshops include training modules in the care of the aged, a workshop for the caregiver, and a workshop for the caregiver. The workshops will be held on Friday evenings and Saturdays, March 18 and 19, and on the weekend of March 24-25.

Multi-disciplinary representatives of various public service agencies in developing, understanding and awareness of the needs of the elderly will be invited. Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday, March 18, 19 and 20, and the weekend of March 24-25. Lunches in the meeting days as well as class materials are furnished for both workshops.

The workshops will be conducted under the direction of Esther Kravitz, J. College, Ph.D.

Registration for the workshop can be completed at Macomb College, 3660 Sibleyville, from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and until 3 p.m. on Friday.

Church sets Advent cantatas

Cantatas for Advent, including works by Telemann and J.S. Bach, will be part of a chamber concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 12 in St. Albanus Church, 1234 Washington Detroit.

The Christmas display at Greenfield Village, which will be on through Jan. 2, takes visitors back to the holidays of a few decades ago. Among the treats to be found there is the nostalgic sight of popcorn being strung to help decorate the tree in the parlor of the Wright brothers home and the making of mincemeat tarts to lend a savory scent to the old house that was the birthplace of Stephen Foster.
