

In The Pocket

By W.W. EDGAR

There is a good chance that two bowlers will be known in Detroit circles will be named to the American Bowling Congress Hall of Fame.

Lumber state

Michigan experienced a strong lumber market in 1976. The state's lumber industry is expected to continue to grow in 1977. The Michigan Lumber Association reports that the state's lumber production is expected to increase by 10 percent in 1977. This is due to a combination of factors, including a strong demand for lumber in the construction industry and a steady supply of raw materials.

Strampe, another former member of the All-Star teams who still is competing in the top brackets.

The reason chances are good that this pair will be honored is the fact that none of the candidates on the ABC list received the required 75 per cent of the votes in the first balloting.

Under these conditions, the ABC takes the top three in the voting. So it happened that Smith and Strampe, along with Carmen Salgado were the top three. A special election is now being determined to see who will go to the Hall.

Both Strampe and Smith were highly rated a decade ago when Strampe won the All-Star in Dallas, Tex., and Smith took the crown on one of his many appearances in the last round of the top flight competition. Harry also was worked as an instructor for the late Jim Tropea at All-Ellitt Recreation. He now is a resident of New York State.

are being re-conditioned and any number of things happen.

"Too much oil" is the most popular excuse. The bowlers claim that due to the poor distribution of oil they can't find their "track" and are in trouble. Others claim lanes have been made "too stiff" and their ball doesn't hook as it should.

The strange thing is that none of the bowlers figure that they are fault—and not the lanes. But it is this way every December so the bowlers' rantings are nothing new.

THE YOUNG bowlers continue to turn in some amazing performances. This week, Bill Peterson, an 11-year-old, fared a 226 game in a 322 series at Garden Lakes. And, over at Farmington Lakes, Lou Galekora paired the top classic with a 224 in 343.

DON FLANN started up a bit of interest in the Open League at Farmington Lakes when he started a big string of strikes. He finally settled for a 279—the highest game of the night—to share honors with Gene Derrick, who had a 246 in 424 for high series.

In the Thursday Classic, Irene Blum posted a 241, while Carl Hunt had a 622 and Lee Habes landed neat with 610. In the Ladies Friday classic, Dottie Homelka had a 224 in 420.

IT DOESN'T HAPPEN often, but Betty Mueller won two of the three games and the series in the Lavonia Ladies Classic. After Dorothy Goryca took the opener with 197-223, Betty took charge.

She won the second game with 193-43-236 and the third with 189-43-222. These two victories gave her the series 503-129-431.

SCORES WERE below average in the Garden Lakes Classic, as Lou Vincenzetti set the pace with a 640. Behind him came Iuch Setlock with 625, and Dick Macraig with 609 led with Iuch Lusner.

In the ladies classic, Marlene Larech paced out Mary Muzaux by two pins when she posted a 596. And in the Mafitis League, Gene Ferrelli was tops with a 622.

THE PACEMAKER'S role in the senior house league at Westland Bowl went to Bob Jawor, who linked counts of 213, 209 and 231 for 653. Close behind him came Ed Marika with games of 524 and 523 in 647, while Bob O'Brien landed third with 629.

THE SPLIT CONVERSION club at Mayflower Lanes inducted three new members this week. Chris Skog qualified by topping the 5-8-10. Kelly Wood earned her entry by spilling the 3-6-7-10 and Jim Martineau knocked over the 4-6.

Meanwhile, in the women's competition, Mary Lou Weaman had a 200 game in 575 and Mary Krause inverted a 200 in 528.

MIKE MOCERI furnished one of the week's features when he registered games of 175, 234 and 225 for 634. Not had for a fellow with a 163 average.

IN THE LADIES classic at Plymouth Bowl, Mary Lou Schneider showed the way with games of 211, 231 and 192 for 607.
