

Club Circuit

AMERICAN DIABETES ASSOCIATION, Michigan Affiliate, has scheduled a ski weekend for diabetics, 15 years and older, Feb. 4-6 at Crystal Mountain, near Cadillac. Dan Donigan will take inquiries by calling him at (313) 735-0410.

The association is currently sending out messages of congratulations to the residents who wrote letters to state officials which ultimately reinstated the sum of $70,000 in state funds to go towards diabetes research.

FARMINGTON ARTISTS CLUB publicly congratulate two of its members who recently won awards.

Bill Dombrowski walked away from the Dearborn Arts and Crafts show with the first prize given for oil paintings.

And Norma Jeanne Curran won a ribbon in the Warren Society of Arts Show in Tel-12 Mall in the floral arranging category.

PARENTS WITHOUT PARTNERS, Farmington Southfield Chapter, will meet Jan. 13 at 8:30 p.m. in St. Francis Knights of Columbus Hall to hear astrologer Marty Schaefer. He is a lecturer, writer and teacher of astrology.

The chapter's meetings are open only to parents without partners. The group meets on the second and fourth Thursdays of every month, in the hall, located at 21900 Middle Belt.

HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB

will meet at 8 p.m. Jan. 13 in Farmington Community Center.

The club's theme for the month is From Reflections, Hope Springs Eternal. Through Growing Things. Guest speaker is Mrs. Kenneth Trombly, a former national accredited garden judge, a past president of the club, and a teacher of floral design at South Oakland Vocational Education Center.

SENIOR CITIZENS SOCIAL CLUB of Farmington will meet at noon, Jan. 14, in First United Methodist Church social hall, on Grand River and Warren.

Guests are asked to bring a sandwich for lunch. Cards will be available for afternoon recreation following the lunch hour.

FARMINGTON AREA JAYCEES will celebrate their 29th year serving the community with a wine and cheese tasting party in American Legion Hall, Jan. 22.

Jan. 19-22 marks the 57th anniversary of the United States Jaycees, which began in St. Louis, Mo.

Among the local celebrations of Jaycee Week is the annual prayer breakfast set for Jan. 20 in Farmington's Holiday Inn. The event begins at 7 a.m. Tickets at $4 are available at the door.

The Jaycees Membership Night is set for Jan. 25 in American Legion Hall.

Novi parks get Smink

Barry Smink, a graduate of North Farmington High, has joined the parks and recreation in Novi.

A recent graduate of Eastern Michigan University, he is married to Susan Kengle of Naples, Fla. They have two sons, Bryan, 7 and Bradley, 3.

Smink is looking forward to his new position.

"We are all anxious to move to Novi," he said. "It's a chance to settle down and set roots."

He was a recreation specialist in the Air Force before majoring in parks and recreation administration at EMU.

While attending school, he worked in the intramural sports department.

"That really prepared me for this job," he said.

Something Different

series starts Jan. 17

The Do Something Different winter series in the Farmington area will begin Jan. 17. The eight part series will run on Monday nights in Labor Zionist Institute, 28355 Middle Belt.

The series will include An Evening with a Psychic Reader, "How to Get Uplight in an Uplight World" and sessions on Silva mind control, assertiveness training, hypnosis, astrology, awareness, and sleeping and dreaming.

A fee of $24 entitles one person to membership and six Do Something Different tickets. Telephone requests will be taken by calling 642-4655.

Tumbling for mothers and toddlers

A mother and toddler tumbling program is scheduled to begin Jan. 31 in North Congregational Church in Southfield, sponsored by Family Life Coop Nursery.

The class will be geared to help pre-schoolers 2 and older to develop large muscle control. It will be guided by an instructor trained in muscle development and early childhood education.

Each session will run for 30 minutes in the once-a-week, 10-week course. Mothers will be required to stay with the children during the course to observe the proper way for children to exercise.

Registration deadline is Jan. 25. Registrations will be taken by phone, by calling Pam Dundas, 569-3228.

The church is on the I-696 service drive, east of Lahser.
