

Marzolf-Beaton

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marzolf of Farmington announce the engagement of their daughter Susan Mary, to Douglas Joseph Beaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Beaton of Detroit.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Farmington High School and employed by Michigan National Bank. Her fiancé is attending Wayne State University graduate school and is a counselor at St. Mary of Redford High School.

A wedding is planned for July 15 in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church in Farmington.

Otto-Mangin

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Otto of Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith, to Richard Mangin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Mangin of Farmington.

The bride-elect, a student at Central Michigan University, will graduate in May 1977. Her fiancé is a graduate of Central Michigan University, employed with Huttig Sash and Door Company, in New Orleans, La.

The couple plan to wed in May, in Redford Baptist Church.

THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS. West Bloomfield-Farmington Branch, visited the West Bloomfield Township Board meeting this week, one of a series of "Go and See" observer trips.

The next observer trip will be to the Farmington Hills City Council Jan. 24, and then to the Oakland County Board of Commissioners meeting Feb. 3.

The observer trips are aimed to familiarize the membership with elected officials, their work, the issues before the various governmental bodies, and to orient members on being League Observers.

The program has monitors at many of the meetings of local governing boards in the West Bloomfield-Farmington area.

The object of the program is to keep the local league informed of actions taken by the local boards, especially on items of league interest.

Also, reports submitted by the observers help identify needs in the community and issues which local league members may wish to study. At present, the league observes 12 boards in the West Bloomfield-Farmington area.

The league welcomes prospective members, league members and citizens interested in the works of the group to be a part of these go and see outings.

Inquiries will be taken by contacting the League at 851-2065.

FARMINGTON AREA MOTHERS OF TWINS CLUB will hear a review of current child development books when it meets at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 20 in Farmington Community Library on Liberty.

Librarian Barbara Walker will be the guest speaker.

The meeting is open to all Farmington residents who are mothers of twins.

Membership information will be taken by contacting Mrs. R.C. Wise, 628-1167.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS, Farmington Hills Chapter, now has copies of the Oakland County Business Directory which lists the 750 area businesses that will give seniors discounts on merchandise and services. The group will offer the directory for 50 cents at its next meeting set for 1:30 p.m. Jan. 21 in the downstairs room of Farmington Hills Community Library on Twelve Mile.

Others may purchase the book by calling Len Butler, 477-6873.

Guest speaker for the January meeting is Frank Ryan, AARP national program coordinator, who will talk on What Makes a Chapter Click.

And Tom Aiken, a local AARP member, will give a report on the chapter's recent gifts to Goodfellow's, the Salvation Army and Farmington's Friends of the Library.

Ivar Nylin, the chapter's committeeman for the Tax Aide Program, will be on hand to answer all questions concerning 1976 income tax forms.

All meetings of the AARP are open to all persons over the age of 55, whether retired or not.

WOMEN OF NORTH FARMINGTON are taking reservations now for a theater party in Sheraton-Bloomfield Hotel in Pontiac on Jan. 28.

Dinner and the stage production of "I Do! I Do!" is on the agenda. Reservations will be taken by Madeline Thompson, 626-9099, before Jan. 21. Guests are welcome.

FARMINGTON AREA NATURALISTS meet at 8 p.m. Jan. 24 in Farmington Community Center for Show and Tell night.

Members are asked to bring any object of interest to share with the group or tell about any interesting venture, or share their hobby or craft.

All meetings of the group are open to all persons interested in nature.

PALETTE AND BRUSH CLUB, of Detroit, will meet at 11 a.m. Jan. 25 in Greenfield Methodist Church, to hear Russell Keeter.

Keeter is a graduate of Ringling School of Art in Sarasota, Fla., and Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. He has taught art at both the Center of Creative Study in Detroit and Birmingham Bloomfield Art Association.

He will be available during the afternoon to critique members' art works.

THE GATHERING PLACE is taking reservations now for persons who wish to meet with a public health nurse who will be in American Legion Hall, on Grand River in Farmington, between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Jan. 26.

The senior citizens center makes this service available to area seniors the fourth Wednesday of every month. The nurse will give health counseling and take blood pressures. Anyone who is experiencing headaches, dizziness, shortness of breath or blurry vision, will get priority appointments.

A shopping trip to Pontiac Mall is on the agenda for seniors Jan. 22, and a Sunday dinner is scheduled for Jan. 30. Both require reservations, which will be taken by stopping in at the center, or calling Loretta Conway, 474-6115.

The Gathering Place is open every weekday from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at 3175 Grand River.

PARENTS WITHOUT PARTNERS meet at 8:30 p.m., Jan. 27, in St. Francis Knights of Columbus Hall to view "an intellectual demonstration of the violence of Karate."

The Karate expert is Ben Creech, a music teacher with the Livonia school system.

All meetings of the group are open to parents without partners, only.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to: Club Circuit, Box 69, Southfield, 48037, and must arrive on the Monday prior to Thursday publication.

Ibsen play scheduled

"The Lady From the Sea," the Academy of Dramatic Art's third production of the 1976-77 season, opens at Oakland University's Studio Theatre on Jan. 21.

The 19th century drama by Henrik Ibsen is set in a small town on a fjord in northern Norway. The play focuses on Ellida Wangel's search for her own identity.

The ADA production runs Jan. 21-23 and Jan. 27-30 in Varner Hall on the Oakland University campus in Rochester. General admission is $2.50, $1.25 for students.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, 6:30 p.m. on the first Sunday, and 2 and 6:30 p.m. on the second Sunday. For reservations call 371-3015.
