It was one of the sloppiest ways to end the regular basketball season but farmington Harrison managed to topple Plymouth Canton 54-15 in a battle for second place in the Western Six League conference.

The game was marred by a combination of poor shooting and countiess turnovers as both squads looked like they didn't even want that runners-up spot in the league.

Both squads entered the Friday right contest at the Harrison grassiant of the properties of the squads of the standard of the state o
