

Scowcroft takes 11th in 500*NF tanker scores at state

By TOM BAER

For the past few years, the state Class A swimming championships have usually been well stocked with athletes from the three Farmington high schools.

That wasn't the case this season, however, as only a total of seven swimmers from the three schools managed to qualify for the Class A finals, held last Saturday in Michigan State University's pool. Of those seven, only one — North Farmington's Clay Scowcroft — managed to score in the finals.

Scowcroft, who didn't qualify for the state meet until his last swim of the regular season, turned in a lifetime best of 1:57.1 in the preliminaries of the 500-yard freestyle, and then logged a 5:53.6 in the finals to finish 11th.

"We were pleased to be there, and pleased that Clay could finish in the top 12," said North Farmington coach Pat Duthie. "Clay's a junior, so seeing the state meet was a good experience for him for next season."

"I think he learned a few things in this meet. He learned not to get his first 50 out so fast. We wanted him to go out a little slower he did in the finals. When you get in that kind of competition, you want to go fast and it's tough to hold back. But that's what you have to do if that kind of a long race."

NO FARMINGTON Harrison swimmers made the state meet finals, although seniors Charlie Hornacek and Jay Emerson had qualified. Hornacek swam a :23 in the 50-yard freestyle and a :58 in the 100 freestyle. Emerson turned in a :58.2 in the 100 backstroke.

Farmington High's 200-yard medley relay (John Pogore, Brian Gore, Ron Reiner and Mark Uhlrich) failed to make the finals with a 1:45.0 official.

"It looked like we were going to 1:43 or 1:44, but Jim blew his first turn and that got everybody a little depressed," said Farmington coach Jack Merritt, whose team won the Inter Lakes League title this season. "They still enjoyed being at the meet, though."

Pogue also qualified in the 100 butterfly, but his time of 1:55.8 wasn't good enough to make the finals.

Ann Arbor Pioneer won the team title with 172 points, 31 more than second-place Ann Arbor Huron. Birmingham Groves finished third with 116 points, and Bloomfield Hills Andover took fourth with 84.
