

Lahser, Andover trackmen prepare for season

By DAVID SAUNDERS

Bloomfield Hills Lahser and Andover have their work cut out for them in their respective leagues, as track season gets underway.

Lahser sees Groves as the powerhouse in the Metro Suburban Association (MSA) once again, and the team to beat. Andover has Greater Oakland Athletic League (GOAL) foes West Bloomfield and Milford battling with them for the top spot.

THE KNIGHTS, coached by Don Rolston, has 15 lettermen returning, plus a large group of promising sophomores.

Rolston has been coaching track at Lahser since its opening in 1967. Last year, they were third in the MSA with a 4-3-1 dual meet record, and were fifth in the Spartan indoor relays.

This year the Knights have three classes laden with talent. "We'll have good kids in each event," said Rolston. "We've got a balanced team and the best crop of sophomores I've seen in a long time."

FIVE SENIORS, four juniors and five sophomores look to be the Knights top prospects.

Seniors Jim Siatczynski, Rob Casalou and Ted Mabley are the top senior sprinters. Siatczynski is bit right now with tendinitis in his ankle. He has run the 100 in :10.1, the 220 in :22.0 and the 440 in :51.5.

Casalou is a 10.4 sprinter in the 100 and will run in the 440 and 880 relay teams. Rolston says Mabley will run the 100, 220 and 440, and will relay team. He adds that Mabley is versatile.

Seniors Bruce McAlister and Dave

Mayo are their shot put and high and low hurdle man, respectively. McAlister has put the shot 46 feet, and "he looks to be one of the best putters in the league," says Rolston. Besides for being one of Lahser hurdlers, Mayo will also high jump.

Junior Chris Morgan will be their middle distance runner, and has run a two minute half. He will anchor the mile relay team. Junior Dan Tamgreen runs the distance, working back and forth in the mile and two mile, and the half mile.

Two other juniors, who look like top prospects, are Mike Stamps and Tim Meland. Stamps will run the 220 and will be on the 440 and 880 relay teams. Meland is their second best discus thrower, and he's also a shot putter.

Sophomores Tim Hurd, Jeff Hamilton, Phil Ruffino, Jamie Douglas and Pete Castiglione round out Lahser's list of top prospects.

Hurd will be a two and one miler. Ruffino looks like a promising high and low hurdler after winning the Birmingham-Bloomfield Junior High League tournament as a freshman. Hamilton is a quarter miler, long jumper, and will run on the relay teams. Douglas is a long and high jumper, and will also run the 880. Castiglione is a promising 440 and 880 runner.

"We're hopeful of improving on our third-place finish in the league last year. It looks like Groves is the team to beat," adds Rolston. "We lost two good kids last year in John Kretschmer, two-time pole vault state champ, and Tom Mahoney."

Lahser will host the Lahser relays

May 14, and the Oakland County tournament May 26. Lahser went to the Huron relays last weekend.

ANDOVER HAS seen a dramatic increase in the number of runners going out for track in the last three years.

"We have 50 runners going out for our program this year," said track coach Paul Dain. "We've built our program up in the last few years."

Dain, in his fourth year as varsity coach at Andover, has been in coaching for 11 years.

In his three years at Andover, the Barons have won the league once, and were runner-up in the league twice. Last year they were runner-up in the GOAL with a 3-3-1 dual meet record. They were ninth in the regionals and sixth in the Ambrose relays.

"We have an uphill battle with Milford and West Bloomfield. The Lakers are picked to win the league," says Dain. "We have a young team and we'll get stronger as the season goes on."

The Barons lost two of their top performers to graduation and two are out this year with injuries. Graduates Tim Young and Eric Flessand both qualified for state one time. Young was a two miler, and Flessand took eighth in the state in the long jump in 1974. He just missed qualifying for state last year.

Out with injuries this year are two juniors. Hurdler Steve Whitten injured his leg and may be out the entire season. Shot putter Scott Anton had an elbow operation and will miss the entire season.

DAIN ROASTS of two of the finest top pole vaulters in the area in seniors Scott Koepke and John Hsu. Both were slightly under 14 feet last year, and should do over 14 feet this year.

Senior co-captain Dan Jones will run the 440, 220 and 100-yard dash. The other co-captain, senior Jim Silmunt will run the mile and two mile.

Other top prospects in the distance include senior Sean O'Brien, and juniors Andy Krystal and Steve Trowl. The Barons have three sophomores that look to be pretty good. Dave Tietmeyer will run the hurdles. Paul Silvani will throw the discus and Tom Buford runs the distance. Andover will expect the Spartan relays scheduled for April 2 in East Lansing.
